Contents

Forewords xi
Acknowledgement xvii
Abbreviations xix

Chapter 1: Introduction 1
1.1. Dalits in India 1
1.2. Dalit Christians 3
1.3. Hypothesis and Research questions 4
1.4. Methods 6
1.5. Informants 6

Chapter 2: Background of Pandur 7
2.1. The Tamil people and caste system 7
2.2. Fifth Caste 8
2.3. Brahminic culture 9
2.4. Names given by other 9
2.5. The Term "Dalit" 10
2.6. Etymology 10
2.7. Tamil Nadu under Colonialism 11
2.8. Background of Thiruvallur district 12
2.9. Geographical 12
2.10. Pandur 13
2.11. Pandur pastorate 13

2.12. Social, Economical, Educational and Religious background of in and around Pandur 13
2.12.1. Social status 14
2.12.2. Dwelling place of Dalit 15
2.12.3. Economic 16
2.12.4. Education 17
2.12.5. Religious background 17
2.12.6. Mass Conversion 18
2.12.7. The background of early Christians in and around Pandur 19

Chapter 3: Arrival and Mission Methods of Leipzig Evangelical Lutheran Missionaries 21
3.1. Protestant Mission in India 21
3.1.1. Arrival of Bartholomew Ziegenbalg and Henry Plütschau 22
3.1.2. Dark period of Halle Mission 23
3.2. Anglican Period 24
3.3. Leipzig Evangelical Lutheran Mission 25
3.3.1. History of Leipzig Mission 25
3.3.2. Leipzig Mission in India 26
3.4. Leipzig Missionaries in Pandur 27
3.4.1. Rev. Johannes Kabis 27
3.4.2. Rev. Rudolf Enno Schomerus 27
3.4.3. Rev. Elias Soederstroem 28
3.4.4. Rev. Karl Heller 28
3.4.5. Rev. Wilhelm Ruckdaeschel 28
3.4.6. Rev. Karl Kannegiesser 29
3.4.7. Miss Elisabeth Buchholz 29
3.4.8. Sister Johanna Zimmermann 29
3.4.9. Rev. Hans Woxblom 30
3.4.10. Miss Marie Haback 30
3.4.11. Luise Fröhlich 30
3.4.12. Silesia Lüben Ruhnke Lydia 31

3.5. Mission Methods of Leipzig Mission Societies 31
3.5.1. Education 32
3.5.2. Sewing school 33
3.5.3. Girls Hostel 34
3.5.4. Heller Boys Hostel 34
3.5.5. Kindergarten 34
3.5.6. Medical work 35
3.5.7. Distributions of land 35
3.5.8. Voice for the voice less 36
3.5.9. Agricultural school 37
3.5.10. Cemetery 37
3.5.11. Well 38
3.6. Evangelistic Work 39
3.6.1. Church planting 40
3.6.2. Catechumens 41
3.7. Intervention of war 41
3.8. Swedish Mission in India 42
3.9. Tamil Evangelical Lutheran Church 43

Chapter 4: Evaluating the Motives and Methods of Leipzig Mission through the voices of Pandur Dalit Christians 45
4.1. Inducement 45
4.1.1. Imperialism 46
4.1.2. Driving Force 47
4.1.3. Sacred and Secular 48
4.2. Education and accommodation 48
4.2.1. Exposure 50
4.2.2. Breaking the barriers 50
4.2.3. Healing 51
4.2.4. Income 52
4.2.5. Female empowerment 54
4.2.6. Undignified to Dignified 55

4.2.7. Forerunners for counter culture 56
4.2.8. Purpose of Religion 56
4.3. Living with the people 57
4.3.1. Identified with the Dalits 57
4.3.2. House Visiting 57
4.3.3. Bible women 58
4.3.4. Accepting the local Culture 59
4.4. Living Christian values 59
4.4.1. Caring and sharing 59
4.4.2. Prayerful and Faithful Life 60
4.4.3. Missionary accountability 60
4.5. Challenges 61
4.5.1. Famine 61
4.5.2. Casteism 61
4.6. Present LELM Projects in Pandur 62
4.6.1. Mission to the North 63
4.6.2. Volunteers program 63
4.6.3. Supporting the Dalit children 63

Chapter 5: Conclusion 65

Bibliography 69

Appendix A: List of Interviewees 73
Appendix B: Questionnaire 75
Appendix C: Maps and Photos 77