Contents

Preface vii
Introduction ix

PART-1
A Critical Study of Passages which Supported War/Killing

1. Abraham's War With the Enemies 3
2. A Study of Moses' Killing an Egyptian 5
3. Israelites' War With Enemies Do not have any Divine Permission 7
4. Judges' War With Other Nations Have no Divine Permission 14
5. Kings' War With Other Nations Do not Prove Divine Permission for War 18
6. Holy Wars 23
7. Consultation of Prophets and God 26
8. The View That God Punishes Nations by Means of Wars 30
9. Human Beings Made God in their Own Images 33

PART-2
Negative Biblical Views to War/Killing/Violence

10. Negative Attitude to War/Killing in the Pentateuch 39
11. Negative Attitude to War/Killing in the Historical Books 43

12. Negative Attitude to War/Killing in the Book of Proverbs 47
13. Negative Attitude to War/Killing in the Prophetic Books 51
14. Negative Attitude to War/Killing in the Teachings of Jesus 54
15. Negative Attitude to War/Killing in other Books of the New Testament 66
16. Bad Effects of War/Killing 69

PART-3
A Theological Reflection on War and Peace

17. The Love and Care of the Creator and Saviour of the World 75
18. God is the God of all Nations 78
19. God is One 80
20. God is the God of Peace 85
21. God is the Non-Resistant God 87
22. God is Parent of All 93
23. All Human Beings are Brothers and Sisters 97
24. A Prophetic Vision of the Peaceful World in the Future 101
25. The Place of War in the List of Sins 106
26. A Re-Examination of Israel's Election 110

PART-4
Christians' Participation in the Military Service

27. A Study of Christians' Joining Military Service 117
28. Christian Life and Military Services 119
29. Christians Should not Join Military Service 124
30. Christian Discipleship and Military Service 128
31. Right Approach to the Goal of Liberation 131
32. Means and Ways to Achieve Permanent Peace in the World 134
33. The Wisdom and Foolishness of Producing and Using Nuclear Bombs 137
34. Wisdom will Bring an End to War and Nuclear Weapons 143
35. Gun-Culture will come to an end when Nations will be willing to Beat Swords into Plowshares and Spears into Pruning Hooks 145

Conclusion 151
Bibliography 154