Contents

Introduction vii

1. Church Reformed: Always Reforming 1
   Daniel Thiagarajah
2. "Justification by Faith Alone" (Sola fide) as an "Occupy Church Movement": Towards an Ecclesia of Multitude? 15
   Mothy Varkey
3. Luther on Two-Realms of God's Activity: Contemporary Reflections 31
   R. Sahayadhas
4. Counter Reformation and the Formation of the Jesuits 51
   Selvaraj Arulnathan SJ
5. Borderless Church: An Ecumenical Perspective Towards Just and Inclusive Communities 65
   Roger Gaikwad
6. Declericalization for a Reformed Church 81
   Kochurani Abraham
7. Theorizing Protest: 'Chalo,' and the Interfaith Movement 91
   Dexter S. Maben
8. Reformation and the Sub-altern Communities: A Dalit Perspective 101
   Vincent Manoharan
9. Reformation and the Indigenous Communities 113
   Songram Basumatary
10. Reformation and the Subaltern Communities: A Woman's Perspective 129
    Renemsongla Ozukum
11. Women in the History of Reformation 137
    Caroline
12. Eco-Justice Reformation in the Context of the Colonization of the Commons 147
    George Zachariah

13. The kairós of Ecological Justice: Approaches from the Global South 157
Ely Orrego Torres
14. Reformation of the Church and our Dream: A Youth Perspective 163
Arvind Theodore
15. We Believe: In Reforming the Church 175
Christy Gnanadasan
16. Reformation and the Borderless Church 183
S. David Amritha Rajan
17. Reformation and Rethinking as Ongoing Processes: Reflections at the Time of a Common Celebration of the Protestant Reformation and the Rethinking Christianity Movement of India 189
Muthuraj Swamy

95 Theses for the Indian Church 199
Contributors 207