

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction	ix
Chapter 1: The Life and Thought of Śaṅkara: An Overview	1
1. The Life of Śaṅkara	2
1.1. Sources	2
1.2. A Brief Sketch of His Life	3
1.3. His Works	5
2. The Main Teachings of Śaṅkara	5
2.1. Brahman	6
2.2. Human Being	7
2.3. Creation	8
2.4. Māyā	8
2.5. Bondage and Liberation	8
3. Concluding Remarks	9
Chapter 2: Śaṅkara's Theological Method	11
1. Śaṅkara – A Śrutivādin	12
2. Sources of Valid Knowledge (pramāṇas)	12
3. Śaṅkara's Hermeneutical Predisposition	12
4. Śaṅkara's Hermeneutical Principle	14
5. The Place of Śaṅkara in the Overall Methodological Issues in the Study of Religion	15

Chapter 3: Śaṅkara's Interaction with the Mīmāṃsā	17
1. The Place of Works (Karma) in Mīmāṃsā School	17
2. Śaṅkara's Refutation to Mīmāṃsā School	20
3. Concluding Remarks	23
Chapter 4: Śaṅkara's Interpretation of the Karma Yoga of the Bhagavad Gītā	25
1. The Two-Fold Vedic Dharma	26
2. The Validity of Work for Self-realization in Śaṅkara's Thought	28
3. The Place Assigned for Works (Karma Yoga)	29
4. Concluding Remarks	31
Chapter 5: Integral Relationship between Karma and Jñāna for Self-realization	33
1. Jñāna-yoga Superior to Karma-yoga	33
2. The Relationship between Jñāna and Karma	35
3. Concluding Remarks	40
Conclusion	43
Bibliography	45