

CONTENTS

Chapter 1: INTRODUCTORY ISSUES	1
a. Philosophy in General	1
b. Philosophy and Science	2
c. Religion in General	3
d. Philosophy of Religion	5
e. But Do We Need (Organised-Religion, Really?)	6
f. A Timely Qualification	7
g. The Three “C’s” of Organised Religion	8
h. Conclusion	10
Chapter 2: GOD AND/OR THE SACRED	11
a. Introductory Remarks	11
b. God or the Sacred?	11
c. The Sacred: Soderblom & Co.	13
d. Popular Idols of God	17
e. The “Masters of Suspicion”	19
Chapter 3: FOR AND AGAINST GOD’S EXISTENCE	23
1. Introductory Ideas	23
a. Avoiding Extremes	23
b. Belief that and Belief in	23
c. Proofs and Belief that	24
d. Hermeneutics	24
e. Summing up	25
2. Arguments for God’s Existence	26
a. The Ontological Argument	26
b. The Cosmological Arguments	27
c. The Teleological Argument	28
d. The Moral Argument	29
e. The Religious Experience Argument	30
f. The Greater Probability Argument	30

3. Arguments Against God's Existence	31
a. The Sociological Objection	31
b. The Psychological Objection	32
c. The Scientific Objection	33
d. The Fact of Evil and Wickedness	34
Appendix to Chapter 3: FURTHER RELATED CLARIFICATIONS	39
a. On the Principle of Causality	39
b. Immanence and Transcendence	41
c. God as Personal?	42
d. A Few More Clarifications	43
1. Aquinas' Five Ways	44
2. Maréchal's Vindication of the Principle of Causality	45
a. The Method	45
b. Conclusion	49
3. The "Two Vays" of Hermeneutical Phenomenology	50
a. Introductory Notions	50
b. The Way of Our Quest for Meaning	50
c. The Way of Our Experience of "Contingence"	52
Chapter 4: SYMBOLS, MYTHS AND RITES	55
Introduction	55
1. Symbols	55
a. Origins	55
b. Symbols and Idols	56
c. How Do Symbols "Work"?	57
d. Why Do We Need Symbols?	57
2. Myths	58
a. What Do We Mean by "Myth"?	58
b. What Is the Value of a Myth?	59
3. Rites	60
a. What is a Rite?	60
b. What is the Value of Rite?	60
c. Secular Rites	60
d. The Modern Anti-Ritual Prejudice	62
Chapter 5: THE RELIGIOUS LEADER	63
a. Introductory Remarks	63
b. Priestly vs the Prophetic Paradigm	63
c. Two Kinds of Identity	65
d. Hierarchic vs Democratic Structures	66

Appendix to Chapter 5: ELEMENTARY COMPARATIVE RELIGION	69
Introduction	69
a. Gnostic vs Agapeic Religions	69
b. “Atheistic” Religions	71
c. Cosmic and Tribal Religions	72
d. Bonhoeffer and “Non-Religious” Christianity	73
Chapter 6: CREATION. EVOLUTION. EMANATION	75
Introduction	75
1. Creation	76
a. The Adam and Eve Story	76
b. Philosophising about “Creation”	78
2. Evolution	80
a. No Necessarily Excludes Creation	80
b. Why Evolution Was Opposed by Believers	81
3. Emanation	82
Chapter 7: PROVIDENCE AND FREEDOM	85
a. Introductory Notions	85
b. Relevance of the Problem	85
c. The Basis of Divine Providence	87
d. Personal Providence	88
e. Prayer is Not Just Petition Making	91
f. Prayer of Petition	92
Chapter 8: GOD AND EVIL	95
a. Introductory Notions	95
b. The Word “Theodicy”	95
c. A Problem? Or a Mystery?	96
d. Gathering Things, Old and New	97
e. Reviewing God’s Omnipotence	98
f. Approaches to the Issue	98
g. Two Sources	99
h. “Nature, Red in Tooth and Claw!”	100
i. Augustine vs Irenaeus	101
j. Where Their Views Differ	102
k. Implications of Augustinian View	102
l. Augustine in His Own Words	103
m. The Difficulty with Augustine’s Approach	104
n. Augustine’s Understanding of Evil/Sin	105
o. Irenaeus’ Understanding of Evil	106
p. “Epistemic Distance”	107

q. Embodiedness: A Pre-Condition for Epistemic Distance	108
r. An Evolving World, Another Pre-Condition for Epistemic Distance	109
s. Whence Comes Our Self-Seeking Urge?	110
t. What about Handicapped Babies?	111
u. Conclusion	112
 Appendix to Chapter 8: THE HINDU DOCTRINE OF REBIRTH	 115
a. Introductory Ideas	115
b. Widespread Roots	115
c. The Doctrine	116
d. A “Typical Text”	116
e. Some Comments on the Texts	117
f. Some Critical Comments on Reincarnation	117
g. On the Other Hand...	119
 GLOSSARY	 121