Contents

Author's Preface xiii
Introduction xv

Chapter 1: The Origin of Christianity in India 1
1. Introduction 1
2. Sources and Traditions Concerning Apostle Thomas Coming to India 1
   2.1. The Western Tradition: The Origin of Christianity in India 1
      2.1.1. The Acts of Judas Thomas 1
      2.1.2. Testimony of Church Fathers 3
   2.2. Indian Tradition: The Origin of Christianity in India 4
      2.2.1. The Non-Christians Testimonies about Thomas 5
      2.2.2. Tomb of Thomas 6
3. The Tradition of St. Bartholomew Coming to India 7
4. Evaluation of the Traditions 8

Chapter 2: Indian Christianity and Its Relation with Christians of the East 11
1. Introduction 11
2. Indian Christianity in the Early Centuries 11
   2.1. Tradition Concerning the Migration from Mylapore to Malabar 12
3. Relation between the Indian Church and the East-Syrian Church of Persia 12
   3.1. Tradition Concerning the Immigration of Persian Christians to India 13
      3.1.1. The Southists and Northists among the Indian Christians 14

3.2. Visit of Pantaenus in A.D. 190 14
3.3. Visit of Bishop David of Basra in about A.D. 295-300 14
3.4. Bishop John of Persia Represents India in A.D. 325 Nicaea 15
3.5. Visit of Theophilus 'The Indian' in A.D. 354 15
3.6. Daniel the Indian Priest at Edessa in A.D. 425 15
3.7. Visit of the Alexandrian Merchant Cosmos Indicopleustes between A.D. 520 and 525 15
3.8. Letters of Two Persian Patriarchs in the 7th, 8th/9th Centuries 16
3.9. Tradition Concerning Mar Sapor and Mar Prot in the 9th/10th Centuries 16

Chapter 3: The Roman Catholic Christianity in India 19
1. Introduction 19
2. Religious Policies of the Portuguese in India 19
3. The Conversion Paravas to Christianity 20
4. The Missionary Methods of Francis Xavier 20
5. Jesuits in the Mughal Court 22
6. Robert De Nobili and His Methods 23
6.1. His Methods of Indigenization 24
6.2. His Writings 31
6.3. His Thoughts on Other Religion 31
7. Roman Catholic Missionaries in Madurai 33
7.1. John De Britto 33
7.2. Fr Constanzo Giuseppe Beschi 33
8. The Portuguese Attempts to Latinize the Indian Christians 34
9. The Synod of Diamper 36
9.1. The Events that Preceded the Synod of Diamper 37
9.2. The Proceedings of the Synod of Diamper 38
9.3. An Evaluation of the Synod 39
10. The Coonen Cross and Consequences 40

Chapter 4: The First Protestant Christianity in India 47
1. Introduction 47
2. Condition of India during the 18th and 19th Centuries 47
2.1. Political Condition 47
2.2. Economic Condition 48
2.3. Socio-Religious Condition 49
2.3.1. Caste System 49

2.3.2. Condition of Women 49
2.3.3. Devadasi System and Practice of Female Infanticide 50
3. Background of Protestant Christianity in India 50
4. The First Protestant Mission in India 51
4.1. The Tranquebar Mission 51
4.2. Bartholomew Ziegenbalg 52
4.3. Their Missionary Methods 53
4.3.1. Learning Language 53
4.3.2. Schools 54
4.3.3. Evangelism 54
4.3.4. Building New Church 54
4.3.5. Translation 54
4.4. Relations between the Lutheran Mission and the Roman Catholic Mission 55
4.5. The Method of Indigenization 56
4.6. Christian Frederick Schwartz 57
5. The Serampore Mission 59
5.1. The Founders of Serampore Mission 60
5.1.1. William Carey 60
5.1.2. William Ward 62
5.1.3. Joshua Marshman 63
5.2. The Mission's Establishment of the Senate of Serampore College 64
5.2.1. The Establishment of the College (1818-1837) 64

Chapter 5: Protestant Christianity in Different Regions in India 69
1. Introduction 69
2. Christian Movements 69
2.1. Christian Movements in Southern India 70
2.2. Christian Movements in Northern India 70
2.3. Christian Movements in North East India 71
3. Debate on Christian Movements 72

Chapter 6: Colonialism and Protestant Christianity in India 73
1. Introduction 73
2. The Colonial and their Religious Policies 73
2.1. The Portuguese Colonialism and Christian Mission 73
2.2. The Dutch Colonialism and Christian Mission 74

2.3. The Danish Colonialism and Christian Mission 74
2.4. The British Colonialism and Christian Mission 75
2.4.1. The East India Company (EIC) 76
2.4.2. Mutiny and Revolt of 1857 79

Chapter 7: Christianity and Nation Building in India 81
1. Christianity and National Independence Movement 81
1.1. The Indian National Congress (INC) 81
1.2. Indian Christians and Indian National Congress 81
1.3. The Changed Attitude of Indian Christians towards INC 82
2. Christianity and Bengal Renaissance 83
2.1. Social Reformation 84
2.2. Education 84
2.3. Modernization of Bengali Literature 84
3. Christianity and Social Transformation 85
3.1. Protestant Christianity and Social Activities 85
3.2. Education 85
3.3. Medical Mission 87
4. Christianity and the Empowerment of Women 87
4.1. Empowerment of Women through Education 87
4.2. Empowerment of Women through Medical Work 88
4.3. Empowerment of Women in the Church 88
5. Caste and Christianity 88
5.1. St. Thomas Christians' Attitude toward Caste 88
5.2. The Roman Catholic Attitude toward Caste 89
5.3. The Protestant Christian Attitude toward Caste till 1850 90
5.3.1. The First Protestant Mission and Caste Issue 90
5.3.2. The Baptist Missionary Attitude towards Caste 90
5.3.3. Anglicans' Attitude towards Caste 90
5.3.4. Towards the Protestant Consensus on Caste 91
5.4. The Protestant Christian Attitude toward Caste Post–1850 92
6. Christianity and Communalism 92
6.1. Causes of Communalism 93
6.1.1. Religious Factor 93
6.1.2. Political Factor 93
6.1.3. Social Cause 93
6.1.4. Christian Response to Communalism 93

Chapter 8: Indigenous Missionary Movements and the Rise of Indian Church 95

1. Introduction 95
2. Development and the Quest for Indian Identity 95
   - 2.1. Protestant Missionaries towards Indigenous Movements 95
   - 2.2. The Indian Christian Herald (ICH) 96
   - 2.3. National Missionary Society (NMS) 96
   - 2.4. Friends Missionary Prayer Band (FMPB) 97
   - 2.5. National Missionary Council of India (NMCI) 97
3. Indigenization of Indian Christianity 98
   - 3.1. Bhakt Singh 98
   - 3.2. Subha Rao 98
   - 3.3. The Hindu Church of Lord Jesus 99
   - 3.4. The National Church of Madras 99
   - 3.5. Bengal Christo Samaj 100

Chapter 9: Indian Christianity and Ecumenical Movement 101

1. Introduction 101
2. Indian Ecumenical Movements and the Issue of Church Union 101
   - 2.1. Co-operation in Mission 102
   - 2.2. Formation of the Church of South India 103
   - 2.3. CSI Negotiation with Other Churches 106
   - 2.4. Formation of the Church of North India 107
   - 2.5. CSI-CNI-MTC 111

Chapter 10: History of Christianity in North East India 113

1. Introduction 113
2. The Political Scenario 114
3. Christianity and the North East India 115
4. Different Christian Missions in NEI 115
   - 4.1. Roman Catholic Mission 115
   - 4.2. Serampore Mission 116
   - 4.3. Baptist Mission 117
     - 4.3.1. Baptist in Assam 117
     - 4.3.2. Baptist among the Karbis 118
     - 4.3.3. Baptist in Garo Hills 118
     - 4.3.4. Baptist in the Nagas Hills 119
     - 4.3.5. Baptist in Manipur 120

4.4. Welsh (Presbyterian) Mission 123
4.5. The Anglican Church 124
4.6. Lutheran Church 126
5. Other Denominations 127
6. Impact of Christianity on the North East Indian Society 127
6.1. Positive Transformations 127
6.1.1. Religious Life of the People 127
6.1.2. Building of Tribal Identity 128
6.1.3. New Social Order for the North Easterners 129
6.1.4. Birth of Literature for the People 129
6.2. Negative Impacts 130
6.2.1. Western Culture to the Erosion of Native Culture 130
6.2.2. Christian Message of Personal Salvation Detrimental to the Communitarian Values of Old 131
6.2.3. Human-Centered View of Reality replaces Creation-Centered Worldview of the Tribal Religion 132
6.3. Western Education Triumphs over Native Form of Learning 132
6.4. Western Christianity Reinforces the Subjugation of Women in Tribal Society 133

Chapter 11: Issues of Pentecostalism in India 135
1. Introduction 135
2. What is Pentecostalism? 136
3. The Origin of Pentecostal Movements in India 137
3.1. Eurocentric View 137
3.2. Native View based on Mukti Mission Revival 138
3.3. 'Pentecostal-Like Movements' View 138
4. The Indigenous Revival Movements in India 139
4.1. In South India 139
4.2. In North India 141
4.3. In Central Part of India 141
4.4. In North East India 142
5. A Postcolonial Reading of Pentecostal Movements in India 142

Chapter 12: Post Independent Indian and Christian Movements 145
1. The Rise of Religious Fundamentalism and Christian Issue of Conversion in India 145
1.1. Conversion Issues during British Raj 145
1.2. Freedom of Religion Bill 145

1.3. Anti Conversion Bills 146
1.4. Accusation of Proselytism 146
1.5. Conversion and India Today 146
2. Minority Rights 147
2.1. Who are the Minorities? 147
2.2. Minority Rights 148
2.3. Minority Rights and Its Provision 149
3. Reservation (Dalit Christians) 152
3.1. The Discrimination of Christian Dalits 152
3.2. The Plea to include Dalit Christians in the Scheduled Caste Category 154
4. Ashram Movements 155
4.1. Roman Catholic Ashrams 155
4.2. Protestant Ashrams 156
5. Theological Institutions 156
5.1. United Theological College (UTC) 156
5.2. Andhra Christian Theological College (ACTC) 158
5.3. Union Biblical Seminary (UBS) 158
5.4. Senate of Serampore College (University) 160
5.5. Eastern Theological College 162

Conclusion 165
Bibliography 167