Contents

Introduction ix

1. Faith and Pandemic: Divesting into the Reality and Theological Challenges 1
   M. Peter Singh
2. Disease, Death, and Human Body in Hebrew Bible: A Pandemic Perspective! 17
   John Samuel
3. Understanding the Covid-19 Pandemic with the Eye of Hebrew Bible: Towards Enunciating Theologies from the Old Testament in the Context of Pandemic 29
   Aravind Jeyakumar Moniraj
4. Reading Book of Job Theologically from Pandemic Perspective 45
   Nagaiyasamy N. S. Samuel
5. Pestilence-Plagues and Empire in New Testament 55
   V. John Pradeep Kumar
6. Covid and the Aged: The Metaphor of Sōma as a Hermeneutical Paradigm for Caring the Elderly 69
   Edwin Jebaraj
7. 'Woman, Arise!' Rethinking Sickness and Death in the Context of Covid-19 Pandemic 79
   Shanthi Sudha Monica
8. Major Pandemics in the World History: An Overview 91
   David Joseph Raj
9. Pandemic and Early Christian Responses: Insights for Holistic Christian Witness 103
   Babu. C
10. Paradigm Shifts in Understanding Mission and Ministry of the Church in Covid-19 Pandemic Context 117
    K. Vijayan
11. Covid-19 and Migrants: Redefining Faith Amidst Challenges 129
    Rebecca Azariah

12. Covid-19 and Children: Towards a Holistic Mission Partnership 143
Vinod S. Sailus
13. Religion as a 'Social Determinant': An Exploration of the Responses of Faith Communities to Pandemics 153
Giri Krishnan
14. Pursuing Daivika Svāsthya in the Course of Māraka: A Hindu Theo-epidemiological Appraisal 167
Wilson Paluri
15. New Media: A Caregiver for the Aged 183
D. Samuel Sounderaraj Singh
16. Dalit Feminist Christology of Ubuntu during Double Pandemic 189
Nelavala Gnana Prasuna
17. Covid-19: A Call for Theological Equilibrium 203
J. Daniel Kirubaraj
18. Faith and Pandemic: Towards a Transgressive Theology and Ethics 217
Mervin Shinoj Boas
19. Theo-ethical Analysis of Pandemic and Faith: An Exploration Towards Theo-pandemology 231
Songram Basumatary

Contributors 247