

Contents

Foreword: Living Hyphenated Lives	xi
Acknowledgement	xiii
Introduction: The Intermezzo of Life	xv
I. Life and Love: Encountering the Other	1
1. The Touch of a Text	3
2. Thinking Tears that Tear Us	6
3. Thinking the Nude	8
4. Towards the Hermeneutics of Hyphenation	10
5. Becoming All the Way	13
6. ‘Putting Our Belonging’ Under Erasure	16
7. Living in an ‘As-if’ Time	18
8. Between St Augustine and Jacques Derrida	21
9. What Does Love Look Like?	24
10. Encounter with the Wholly Other	26
II. Philosophy and Paradoxes: Embracing/Enabling Impossibilities	29
11. Thinking Fullness and Emptiness Together	31
12. Between Martha and Mary	33
13. Sharing our Unshareability	36
14. Dying to Live	39
15. The Logic of Giving Without Giving	42
16. Choosing the Impossible	45
17. (Un)Thinking the Impossible	47
18. Living ‘Out of Joint’	50
19. Beyond Saying and Unsaying Theologies	52
20. Reading Together: The Tower of Babel and the Pentecost	55

III. God and Theology: Surrendering Joyfully	59
21. The God to Come	61
22. The Hydraulics of the Divine	64
23. The Geometry of Liturgy	67
24. Deconstructed by God	70
25. Walking by Faith and Not with Sight	73
26. Thinking Gift to Think Grace	75
27. Authorising Authority: Learning from the Gospel of Matthew	78
28. The Metanoetics of Jesus	81
29. Towards a Crucified Theology	83
30. At the Foot of the Cross	85
IV. Living and Ending: Hyphenating Animals and Divine	89
31. Following the Animal Other	91
32. Apophatics of the Human and the Animal Binary	94
33. Deconstructing Our Lyconomy	97
34. Reading ‘the Dogs’ of the Texts of the Bible with Derrida	99
35. The Microbes Are. Therefore I Am	102
36. The Face of God in the Cat of Derrida and the Bodhi Tree of Buddha	104
37. Facing a Post-human Earth	107
38. Spiritual Democracy of God’s Creatures	109
39. The Mysterium Convivium and the Gospel of Creation	112
40. Happy Livings and Happier Endings	115
Open Endings	117
References	121
Glossary	129
Index	135