Contents

Acknowledgement xiii
Preface xv
List of Abbreviations xxi

Introduction 1
1. What is Tribal Literature? 1
2. The Need of Tribal Research Methodology 5
3. Methodology 13

Chapter 1: Research Methodology I: Mythology 15
Introduction 15
1.1. Meanings of Myth and Mythology 16
1.2. Origin of Myths 20
1.3. Types of Myth 22
1.4. Functions of Myth 23
1.5. Theories of Myth 26
1.5.1. Indian Theories 27
1.5.2. Greco-Roman Theories 31
1.5.3. Enlightenment Theory 33
1.5.4. Schelling's Theory 34
1.5.5. Muller's Theory 35
1.5.6. Tylor's Theory 37
1.5.7. Frazer's Theory 39
1.5.8. Freud's Theory 40
1.5.9. Cassirer's Theory 42
1.5.10. Malinowski's Theory/Functional Approach 43
1.5.11. Jung's Theory 46

1.5.12. Eliade's Theory 47
1.5.13. Lévi-Strauss' Theory/Structural Approach 49
1.5.14. Barthes' Theory/Poststructural Approach 52
1.5.15. Postmodern Approaches 54
Conclusion 56

Chapter 2: Research Methodology II: Hermeneutics 59
Introduction 59
2.1. Meanings of Hermeneutics 60
2.2. The Four Components of Hermeneutical Enterprises 62
2.3. Historical Aspects of Hermeneutics 63
2.3.1. Development of Hermeneutics 64
2.3.1.1. Christian Hermeneutics Till the Reformation 65
2.4. Modern Hermeneutics Since the Enlightenment 68
2.4.1. Philosophical Hermeneutics 70
2.4.1.1. Chladenius' Hermeneutics 70
2.4.1.2. Schleiermacher's Hermeneutics 71
2.4.1.3. Dilthey's Hermeneutics 73
2.4.1.4. Heidegger's Hermeneutics 75
2.4.1.5. Gadamer's Hermeneutics 77
2.4.1.6. Ricoeur's Hermeneutics 80
2.4.1.7. Habermas' Hermeneutics 84
2.4.1.8. Foucault's Hermeneutics 86
2.4.1.9. Derrida's Deconstruction 91
2.4.1.10. Postmodern Theories 94
2.4.2. Theological Hermeneutics 97
2.4.2.1. Barth's Hermeneutics 97
2.4.2.2. Bultmann's Hermeneutics 99
2.4.2.3. Feminist/Womanist Criticism in Theology 102
2.4.2.4. Liberation Theological Hermeneutics 104
2.4.2.5. Asian Theological Hermeneutics 107
2.4.2.6. Indian Theological Hermeneutics 111
2.4.2.7. Postcolonial Criticism in Theology 114

2.4.2.8. Dalit Theological Hermeneutics 116
2.4.2.9. Indigenous-Tribal Theological Hermeneutics 117
2.4.2.9.1. Nirmal Minz 118
2.4.2.9.2. Renthy Keitzar 119
2.4.2.9.3. K. Thanzauva 120
2.4.2.9.4. Wati Longchar 121
2.4.2.9.5. Yangkahao Vashum 123
2.4.2.9.6. Tribal Feminist/Womanist Theological Hermeneutics 125
2.4.2.9.6.1. R. L. Hnuni 125
2.4.2.9.6.2. Lalnghakthuami 126
2.4.2.9.6.3. Limatula Longkumer 127
2.4.2.9.6.4. Lovely Awomi James 127
2.4.2.9.6.5. Eyingbeni Lotha 128
2.4.2.9.7. Other Tribal Theological Hermeneutics 128
Conclusion 130

Chapter 3: Socio-Historical Background of the Liangmai Community and Folklore 133
Introduction 133
3.1. Preliminary Remark on Sources 134
3.2. The Liangmai 135
3.3. Theories on the Origin of the Liangmai 137
3.4. Migration and Settlements 139
3.4.1. Makhel: The Cradle of the Nagas 141
3.4.2. Makuiluangdi: The Abode of the Liangmais 142
3.5. Mountain Civilizations 145
3.6. Social Structures 147
3.6.1. Kikhun (Family) 147
3.6.2. Chaphiu (Clan) System 148
3.6.3. Status of Women 150
3.6.4. Khangchiu and Liuchiu (Dormitories) System 152
3.6.5. Inter-Village War and Revenge 154
3.7. Dithincheng (Polity) 155
3.8. Characheng (Primal Religion) 156

3.9. Talung Jai (Culture) 159
3.9.1. Lianglad: The Language of the Community 160
3.9.2. Oral Tradition: A Living Literature 162
3.9.3. Festivals and Feasts of Merit 163
3.9.4. Architecture and Housing 164
3.10. Khiulan Jai (Economy) 165
3.11. Kati-Tasi Cheng (Education) 168
3.12. Eco-Consciousness 169
3.13. Pre-Christian Background of the Liangmai Religion 170
3.14. Encounter with Colonialism, Christianity, and Modernity 171
3.14.1. Initial Response and Consequences 173
Conclusion 175

Chapter 4: Interpretation and Analysis of Liangmai-Naga Traditional Myths 177
Introduction 177
4.1. Mapping the Liangmai-Naga Traditional Myths 178
4.2. Impacts of Christianity and Modernity on Traditional Myths 182
4.3. Contemporary Liangmai-Naga Understanding of Myths 184
4.4. Certain Presuppositions in the Reading of Myths 185
4.5. Tingkadipiri Dambo Mari (Creation Myth) 189
4.5.1. Major Themes 192
4.5.2. Motifs and Symbols 193
4.5.3. Interpretation and Analysis 193
4.5.3.1. Primal Cosmology 198
4.5.3.2. Cosmic Community 199
4.5.3.3. Humankind 200
4.5.3.4. Sexual Expression 203
4.5.3.5. The World: Perfection of God's Creative Power 204
4.5.3.6. Reading from Women's Perspective 205
4.6. Chamai Lungkiu Karaibo Mari (Myth of the Early Civilization) 206
4.6.1. Major Themes 210
4.6.2. Motifs and Symbols 210
4.6.3. Interpretation and Analysis 211
4.6.3.1. Ideal Primeval Civilization 212
4.6.3.2. Humans and their Predicaments 212
4.6.3.3. Tingwang's Abandonment of the World 215

4.6.3.4. Tingwang's Mercy and Humans' Continuous Disobedience 215
4.6.3.5. Help and Sacrifice 215
4.7. Charawang Nai Pasingnamai Mari (Myth of Charawang and His Brothers) 216
4.7.1. Major Themes 221
4.7.2. Motifs and Symbols 222
4.7.3. Interpretation and Analysis 223
4.7.3.1. The Rise of Demigods 223
4.7.3.2. Locating Charasingrangpui's Position 225
4.7.3.3. Sexual Relations and Social Implications 226
4.7.3.4. Siblings and Sibling Rivalry 227
4.7.3.5. Kaimadiliu and Her Mother's Role 229
4.7.3.6. Is Kaimadiliu Made as a Scapegoat? 230
4.7.3.7. Results of Conflict 230
4.8. Mang Jouhubo Mari (Myth of the Feast of Merit of Mang) 232
4.8.1. Major Themes 239
4.8.2. Motifs and Symbols 239
4.8.3. Interpretation and Analysis 240
4.8.3.1. Cosmogonic Communality 241
4.8.3.2. Answers to Human's Endless Queries 242
4.8.3.3. Non-Committal on Women's Participation 246
4.8.3.4. Hilarious and Comical Images 247
Conclusion 247

Chapter 5: Hermeneutics of Community: Towards a Tribal Literary Criticism and Research Methodology 249
Introduction 249
5.1. Significance of the Traditional Myths 251
5.1.1. Socio-Cultural Implications 252
5.1.2. Psychological Implications and Identity Consciousness 254
5.1.3. Dynamics of Re-Narration 254
5.1.4. Religious and Moral Significance 255
5.1.5. Community Values 256
5.2. Myths as a Source of Episteme and Theology 257
5.3. The Need for a New Hermeneutics of Culture and Theology 261
5.4. Towards a Holistic Hermeneutical Enterprise 266

5.5. Hermeneutics of Community 267
5.5.1. Eco-Hermeneutics or Creation-Centred Hermeneutics 271
5.5.2. Tribal Literary Criticism 274
5.5.3. Storytelling/Narratology 276
5.5.3.1. Bible and Narrative 281
5.5.4. Inter-Subjective Reading: An Interpretation of the Equals 282
5.5.5. Hermeneutical Circle and Interpretational Holism 287
5.5.6. Language and Words in Interpretation 289
5.5.7. Pre-Understanding in Interpretation 292
5.5.8. Semantic Polyvalence of the Oral Text 294
5.5.9. Negotiating the Objective-Subjective Conundrum 297
5.5.10. Towards a Fusion of Horizons 298
5.5.11. Suspicion in Interpretation 300
5.5.12. Exploration of Re-Remembering, Re-Mythologization, and Re-Oralization 301
5.5.13. Hermeneutics of Inclusive Spirituality 302
5.5.14. Hermeneutics of Liberation 305
5.5.15. Hermeneutical of Identity 310
5.5.16. Tribal Hermeneutics as an Anti-Metanarrative Approach 311
Conclusion 314

Chapter 6: Conclusion 317

Appendix 321
Bibliography 325
Index 361