Contents

Preface vii

UNIT I: The World of Jesus and the Gospels 1

1. The Political World 3
2. The Social World 10
3. The Cultural World 15
4. The Economic World 21
5. The Religious World 28

UNIT II: Formation of the Synoptic Gospels 39

1. Writing of the Synoptic Gospels 41
2. Genre of the Synoptic Gospels 45
3. Synoptic Problem and Its Solutions 51

UNIT III: Critical Tools in the Study of the Synoptic Gospels 59

1. Historical Critical Method 61
   - 1.1. Textual Criticism 62
   - 1.2. Source Criticism 68
   - 1.3. Form Criticism 72
   - 1.4. Redaction Criticism 77
2. Sociological Studies 81
3. Intertextuality 86
4. New Literary Criticism 92
   - 4.1. Narrative Criticism 93
   - 4.2. Structuralism 97
   - 4.3. Rhetorical Criticism 101

4.4. Canonical Criticism 107
4.5. Reader-Response Criticism 109
5. Postcolonial Reading 115
6. Context-Specific Readings 120
6.1. Dalit Reading 120
6.2. Tribal Reading 124
6.3. Feminist Reading 127
6.4. Ecological Reading 133

UNIT IV: Jesus in the Synoptic Gospels 141
1. Reliability of the Synoptic Gospels 143
2. Jesus as Interpreted by the Synoptic Evangelists 149
3. The Role of the Infancy Narratives 160
4. The Formation and Function of Passion Narratives 165
5. The Formation and Significance of Resurrection Narratives 170

UNIT V: Life and Ministry of Jesus in the Synoptic Gospels 177
1. John the Baptist and Ministry of the Forerunner 179
2. Baptism and Temptations of Jesus 188
3. The Miracles of Jesus 195
4. Confrontations of Jesus 200
5. Confrontation with the Chief Priests and the Elders 206

UNIT VI: Teachings of Jesus in the Synoptic Gospels 209
1. Kingdom (Basileia) of God 211
2. Parables 215
3. Discourses of Jesus 222
4. The Ethics of Jesus 230
5. The Prayers of Jesus 233
6. Inclusive Message of Jesus 238

Bibliography 244