Contents

Foreword vii
Preface xi
Acknowledgements xvii
Introduction xxi

I. Foundations of Hindu Traditions 1
1. Nature and Diversity of Hinduism: Historical and Cultural Overview 3
2. Key Concepts in Indian Religious Thought: Dharma, Karma, Samsara, and Moksha 19
3. The Concept of Ultimate Reality: Brahman, Ātman, and the Diversity of Indian Philosophical Thought 45
4. Sacred Texts in Hindu Tradition: The Vedas, Upanishads, and the Bhagavad Gita 59
5. Worship, Ritual, and Bhakti: Forms of Devotional Practice in Hinduism 73

II. Comparative Theological Engagement 89
6. Understanding God: Personal and Impersonal Concepts in Hinduism and Christianity 91
7. Sin, Salvation, and Liberation: Moksha and Christian Redemption 105
8. Incarnation and Avatāra: Comparative Christological Reflections 125
9. Scripture and Revelation: Authority and Interpretation 145
10. Human Life and Ethics: Dharma and Christian Moral Teaching 166

III. Historical Encounters between Christianity and Hinduism 187
11. St. Thomas Traditions and Early Christian Presence in India 189
12. Missionary Movements during Colonial Period 215
13. Key Thinkers and Approaches in Hindu-Christian Encounter 239
14. Indigenous Christian Movements and Responses 260
15. Post-Independence Developments in Mission and Dialogue 282

IV. Missiological Approaches in Hindu Contexts 305
16. Inculturation and Contextual Theology in India 306
17. Interreligious Dialogue and Mission in India 324
18. Comparative Theology and Mission in India 347
19. Ashram Movements and Indian Christian Spirituality 368
20. Christian Witness in a Multi-Religious Society 391

My Ministerial Journey: A Journey of Faith, Mission, and Learning 413