Contents

Acknowledgement xiii
Abbreviations xv
Introduction xix

Chapter 1: Meaning and Derivation of Oracles 1
Introduction 1
1.1. General Defining of Oracles 1
1.2. Hebrew Words for Oracle 2

Chapter 2: Origination and Development of Oracles against the Nations in Ancient West Asia and in Israel 5
Introduction 5
2.1. Prophecy in Ancient West Asian Context 6
2.2. The Context of the Oracles in Ancient West Asia 10
2.3. The Content of the Oracles in Ancient West Asia 11
2.4. Prophecy in Israel 12
2.5. Origination and Development of the OAN Tradition 15
2.5.1. History of OAN Traditions 15
2.5.2. An Embarrassed Consensus of the Setting of OAN 16
2.6. Challenging the Consensus of the OAN 17
2.7. Limits and Organization of the OAN 18
2.8. The Ancient Interpretation of the Oracular Usage 19
2.9. Supposed Addressees and the Context of the OAN 19
2.10. The Discrepancy Between Judgment Oracles and Salvation Oracles 20
2.11. OAN in First of the Writing Prophets, Amos 21
2.11.1. Background History, Person, and the Work of Amos 22
2.11.2. The Book of Amos 23
2.11.3. Function of Oracles in Amos 24
2.11.3.1. Reasons for the Judgment Indictment on Nations 24
Summary 26

Chapter 3: Historical Background of the Book of Proto-Isaiah 29
Introduction 29
3.1. Bird's Eye-view of the Book of Isaiah 30
3.2. The Unity of the Book of Isaiah 31
3.3. Background of the Book of Proto-Isaiah 32
3.3.1. Authorship, Genre, Setting and Date of Proto-Isaiah 32
3.3.2. A Biographical Sketch on Isaiah of Jerusalem 33
3.4. The Religious and Theological Backgrounds of Isaiah's Ministry 34
3.5. The Social, Political, Economic, Religious and Military Contexts of Proto-Isaiah 35
3.5.1. Social Context of Proto-Isaiah 36
3.5.2. Political Context of Proto-Isaiah 37
3.5.3. Socio-Economic Context of Proto-Isaiah 39
3.5.4. Religious Context of Proto-Isaiah 40
3.5.5. Military Context of Proto-Isaiah 41
3.6. The Time of Prosperity and Power 43
3.6.1. Colonization 43
3.6.2. Urbanization 44
3.6.3. Regional Specialization 44
3.6.4. Wine Processing 45
3.6.5. Oil Industry 46
3.6.6. Trade and Commerce 47
3.7. The Consequences of Social, Political, Religious and Economic Prosperity in Judah and in Jerusalem 48
3.8. Prophetic Activities of Isaiah of Jerusalem 51
3.9. The Message of the Prophet Isaiah of Jerusalem 51
3.10. Theological Themes in Proto-Isaiah 53
Summary 56
Findings and Conclusion 56

Chapter 4: Judgment on the Nations in Isaiah 13-23 57
Introduction 57
A Historical Overview of Isaiah 13-23 57
SECTION-I
Oracle on the Destruction of Babylon (Isa. 13:1-22)
1. Translation of Isaiah 13:1-22 60
2. Text Critical Notes on Isaiah 13:1-22 61
3. Form, Setting and Structure of Isaiah 13:1-22 62
4. Comments on Yahweh's Authority Over Babylon (Isaiah 13:1-22) 63
4.1. Getting Armies Ready for Battle (2-5) 64
4.2. Yahweh's Coming and the Day of Agony and Anguish Near (6-8) 65

4.3. The Terror of the Day of Yahweh (9-16) 66
4.4. The Specificity of Babylon and her Destruction (17-22) 67
5. Theological Significance of the Oracle Concerning Babylon 68
Summary 69

SECTION-II

Reassurance and Hope for Israel (Isa. 14:1-32)

1. Translation of Isaiah 14:1-32 69
2. Text Critical Notes on Isaiah 14:1-32 71
3. Form, Setting, and Structure of Isaiah 14:1-32 72
4. The Destruction of Babylon, the World Ruler, and Yahweh's Plan for Assyrians (Isa.14:1-32) 73
4.1. Concerning the Restoration of Israel (1-2) 74
4.2. The Downfall of the World Ruler (3-23) 74
4.3. The Destruction of Assyria and the Fall of Babylon (24-27) 75
4.4. The Burden of Philistines (28-32) 76
5. Theological Significance of the Oracle Concerning Babylon 77
Summary 78

SECTION-III

An Oracle Concerning Moab and her Petition (Isa. 15:1-16:14)

1. Translation of Isaiah 15:1-16:14 78
2. Textual Notes on Isaiah 15:1-16:14 80
3. Form, Setting and Structure of Isaiah 15:1-16:14 80
4. The Desolation and Lament over Moab (Isa. 15:1-16-14) 81
4.1. Weeping and Trembling over the Devastation of Moab (15:1-9) 82
4.2. Petition of the Moabites (16:1-5) 83
4.3. The Pride of Moab and Her Rejection of the Given Hope (16:6-14) 84
5. Theological Significance of Isaiah 15:1-16:14 85
Summary 85

SECTION-IV

The Burden and a Judgment Against Damascus, Israel, and Ethiopia (Isa.17:1-18:7)

1. Translations on Isaiah 17:1-18:7 86
2. Textual Notes on Isaiah 17:1-18:7 88
3. Form, Setting, and Structure of Isaiah 17:1-18:7 88
4. Verdict Against Damascus, Israel, and Ethiopia (Isa. 17:1-18-7) 90
4.1. An Oracle Concerning Damascus and Israel (17:1-11) 90
4.2. Divine Judgment on Assyrians (17:12-14) 91
4.3. Oracle Concerning Ethiopia (18:1-7) 91
4.4. Theological Theme and Significance of the Oracle 92
Summary 92

SECTION-V
An Oracle Regarding Egypt and Isaiah's Enacted Prophecy (Isa. 19:1-20:6)
1. Translations on Isaiah 19:1-20:6 93
2. Textual Notes on Isaiah 19:1-20:6 95
3. Form, Setting, and Structure of Isaiah 19:1-20:6 96
4. Confusion and Disunity of Egypt and the Consequences (19:1-20:6) 97
4.1. Yahweh's Condemnation of Haughty Egypt and the Great Drought (1-15) 97
4.2. Judah as a Terror to Egypt and the Conversion of Egypt (16-25) 99
4.3. The Folly of Trusting Egypt (20:1-6) 100
5. Theological Theme and Significance of the Oracle 101
Summary 102
SECTION-VI
The Wilderness of the Sea, Dumah and the Desert Plain (Isa. 21:1-17)
1. Translation of Isaiah 21:1-17 103
2. Textual Notes on Isaiah 21:1-17 104
3. Form, Setting, and Structure of Isaiah 21:1-17 104
4. Yahweh as the True Savior (21:1-17) 105
4.1. The Judgment of the Fall of Babylon (1-10) 106
4.2. The Oracle Concerning Dumah (11-12) 107
4.3. Concerning Arabia (13-17) 107
5. Theological Significance of the Oracle 108
Summary 108
SECTION-VII
Oracle on the Land of No Vision 22:1-25
1. Translation of Isaiah 22:1-25 108
2. Textual Notes on Isaiah 22 110
3. Form, Setting, and Structure of Isaiah 22:1-25 110
4. The Contradicting Life of the Nation (22:1-25) 112
4.1. The Valley of Vision and Untimely Rejoicing of the Inhabitants of Jerusalem (1-4) 112
4.2. The Attack of Judah and Jerusalem (5-8a) 113
4.3. False Trust in Human Preparations (9b-11) 114
4.4. Call to Trust God (12-14) 114
4.5. The Prophetic Judgment Against Shebna (15-25) 115
5. Theological Significance of Isaiah 22 115
Summary 116
SECTION-VIII
Dishonest Activities of Tyre and Her Judgment (Isa. 23:1-18)
1. Translation of Isaiah 23:1-18 116

2. Textual Notes on Isaiah 23 118
3. Form, Setting, and Structure of Isaiah 23:1-18 118
4. Yahweh's Judgment Against Tyre (23:1-18) 119
4.1. The Destruction of Tyre (1-7) 120
4.2. The Plan and Act of Yahweh (8-14) 121
4.3. The Predictions of Tyre's Recovery (15-18) 122
5. Theological Theme and Significance of Isaiah 23 122
Summary 123
Findings and Conclusion 123

Chapter 5: Judgment Oracle against the Leaders of Jerusalem and Judah 125
Introduction 125

SECTION-I
Judgment, Purification, and Restoration of the Harlot City by Justice and Righteousness

5.1. Translations on Isaiah 1:21-27 126
5.1.1. Text Critical Notes on Isaiah 1:21-26 126
5.1.2. Form, Setting, and Structure of Isaiah 1:21-27 126
5.1.3. The Corrupt Leaders Judged, Removed, and the City Redeemed 127
5.1.3.1. Accusation of Sinfulness Against the Rulers (21-23) 127
5.1.3.2. Judgment Against the Rulers (24-26) 128
5.1.3.3. The Redemption and Restoration of the City (27) 129
5.1.4. Theological Significance of the Oracle of Isaiah 1:21-27 129
Summary 129

SECTION-II
Judgment Oracle Against the Haughty and Incompetent Leaders of the Nations

5.2. Translation of Isaiah 3:1-15 130
5.2.1. Textual Notes on Isaiah 3:1-15 132
5.2.2. Form, Setting, and Structure of Isaiah 3:1-15 132
5.2.3. Explicit Warning for Jerusalem and Judah 3:1-15 133
5.2.3.1. The Corrupted Rulers of Jerusalem and Judah (1-7) 134
5.2.3.2. Anarchy and Chaos as Consequences of Wickedness and Dissolution (8-12) 135
5.2.3.3. The Removal of Leaders Misleading People (13-15) 136
5.2.4. Theological Significance and Function of the Oracle 137
Summary 137

SECTION-III
Verdict Against Drunkenness of the Priests and the Prophets
5.3. Translation of Isaiah 28:1-11 138
5.3.1. Textual Notes on Isaiah 28:1-11 138
5.3.2. Form, Setting, and Structure 139
5.3.3. Warning Against the Haughty and Discordant Leadership (28:1-11) 139
5.3.3.1. The Thoughtlessness of the Drunkards (1-6) 139
5.3.3.2. The Ramifications of the Drunkard Priests and Prophets (7-11) 140
5.3.4. Theological Significance of Isaiah 28:1-11 141
Summary 141
SECTION-IV
Embarrassment and Disgrace as the Results of Alliance with Other Nations
5.4. Translation of Isaiah 30:1-5 142
5.4.1. Textual Notes on Isaiah 30:1-5 142
5.4.2. Form, Setting, and Structure of Isaiah 30:1-5 142
5.4.3. Woe to the Rebellious Leaders of Judah (30:1-5) 143
5.4.3.1. The Uselessness of Reliance on Egypt (1-2) 143
5.4.3.2. The Description of the Worthless Plan and Yahweh's Condemnation (3-5) 144
5.4.4. Theological Theme and Significance of the Oracle 144
Summary 144
Findings and Conclusion 144
Chapter 6: Oracles against the Nations and its Relevance for the Contemporary Indian Society 147
Introduction 147
6.1. Reasons for Judgment OAN in Proto-Isaiah 147
6.1.1. Judgment for the Failure of Kings, Leaders, and Priests 148
6.1.2. Judgment for the Pride of Overpowering Other Nations 149
6.1.3. Disregard of Yahweh's Reign over All Nations 149
6.1.4. The Exclusive Attitude Towards the Neighboring Nations Results Judgment Against Israel and Judah 149
6.1.5. The Exaltation of Yahweh Against all Human Pride and Glory 150
6.1.6. The Powerlessness and Helplessness of Human Power and Strength 150
6.2. Foundational Judgment Against Israel and Judah 151
6.3. Theological Significance and Functions of the OAN in Proto-Isaiah 152

6.3.1. The Theological Significance and Functions of Faith in the OAN in Proto-Isaiah 152
6.3.2. The Theological Significance and Functions of Justice in the OAN in Proto-Isaiah 153
6.3.3. The Theological Significance and Functions of Sin in the OAN in Proto-Isaiah 153
6.3.4. The Theological Significance and Functions of Hope in the OAN in Proto-Isaiah 154
6.4. Approximating the Context of Isaiah's Time with that of Indian Society 155
6.4.1. Rebellious and Unproductive City 156
6.4.2. Isaiah's Demands for Trust and Resolution for Relationship with Yahweh 157
6.5. OAN and Its Implication to Indian Society 157
6.5.1. The Luxurious Lifestyle of the Rulers and the Leaders 158
6.5.2. Religious and Political Controversies in Society 159
6.5.3. Significance of OAN to Multi-Religious Context of India 159
6.5.4. Mission Paradigm for the Present Indian Context 160
6.5.5. Issues in Relation to the Weaker Sections of Communities 161
6.6. OAN and Its Implication to the Naga Society 161
6.6.1. Warning Against the Nagas' Incompetent Rulers and Officials 161
Summary 162
Findings and Conclusion 163
General Conclusion 165
Bibliography 169