Contents

Editorial Note vii

Section One
Biblical, Theological, and Hermeneutical Studies

1. The Crucified Christ: Paul's Theological Response to the Division in the Corinthian Church 1
Huten Donhring Anal

2. Covenant and Exclusion: Rethinking Land Theology in Genesis 15 and 17 from an Inclusive Paradigm 23
E. Buveine

3. The Peril of Looking Back: A Taboo-centric Warning on Bride in Relation to Genesis 19 37
Vini H. Aye

4. Deconstructing the Traditional Interpretation of Orpah: Reading through the Lens of the Marginalized Women within the Naga Context 47
Kikruhenuo Linyi

5. The Spirit Who Dwells: Holy Spirit, Spirits, and Sacred Space among the Sumi Naga 67
Pika K. Shohe

6. Understanding Environmental Wisdom Worldview and Discerning its Common Ground with Tribal Culture and the Bible 83
Limeka Achumi

7. Doing Contextual Theology from the Pain Pathos of Indigenous Women 97
Sungjeminla, I.B.S.

Section Two
Applied, Social, and Contextual Engagements

8. Re-Imagining the Role and Status of Sumi Women – Then and Now 115
Vilito Zhimo

9. Rereading Psalms 104 through Eco-Theology: Implications for Sustainable Ecotourism in Nagaland 129
Meyijungla

10. Challenges and Prospects of Religious Tourism in Nagaland 149
Martula Jamir

Contributors 171