

Contents

Preface	vii
Abbreviation	xi
Chapter 1: General Outline of the New Testament	1
Chapter 2: How the Gospels Came to be Written	5
Chapter 3: Synoptic Problem	11
Chapter 4: Source Criticism as a Solution to the Synoptic Problem	15
Chapter 5: Similarities and Dissimilarities between the Synoptic Gospels and the Gospel of John	27
Chapter 6: The Gospel According to Mark: A Critical Survey	33
Chapter 7: The Gospel According to Matthew: A Critical Survey	39
Chapter 8: The Gospel According to Luke: A Critical Survey	49
Chapter 9: Communities of the Synoptic Gospels	57
Chapter 10: Infancy Narratives in Matthew and Luke	67
Chapter 11: The Baptism of Jesus	73
Chapter 12: Temptation of Jesus in the Wilderness	77
Chapter 13: Sermon on the Mount (Matthew) and the Plain (Luke)	81
Chapter 14: Lord's Prayer in the Synoptic Tradition	89
Chapter 15: Nazareth Manifesto (Lk 4.16-20)	97
Chapter 16: Jesus' Teaching on Divorce in the Synoptic Gospels	105
Chapter 17: The Status of Children in the Community of Jesus	109
Chapter 18: Theology of the Synoptic Gospels	113
Chapter 19: Christological Titles in the Synoptic Gospels	125
Chapter 20: The Kingdom of God in the Synoptic Gospels	139

Chapter 21: Miracles in the Synoptic Gospels	145
Chapter 22: Miracles as Signs of the Reign of God	149
Chapter 23: Confrontation with Socio-religio-political Powers	157
Chapter 24: New Polarization: The Place of the Downtrodden in the Mission of Jesus	161
Chapter 25: Lucan Theology on the Poor	165
Chapter 26: Parables in the Synoptic Gospels	175
Chapter 27: Earlier History of Interpretation of Parables	183
Chapter 28: Plurisignificant Interpretation of Parables	199
Chapter 29: Recent Interpretation of the Parables of Jesus	211
Chapter 30: Jesus' Parables of the Kingdom of God	235
Bibliography	239