Contents

Foreword ix
Acknowledgements xv
Preface xvii

Part - I
Conceptual and Theoretical Domain

1. Not to Conflate: Migrants and Refugees 3
John Mohan Razu
2. Shrinking Globalization and Rising Nationalism: Human Migration a Global Challenge 13
John Mohan Razu
3. Urbanization, Pandemic, Intermittent Lockdown: It's Impacts on Migrants in India 25
Shujayathulla E.
4. 'Integration': Migrants and Refugees Approached from an 'Ethic of Hospitality' 39
John Mohan Razu
5. Beyond Skewed Notions of Nationalism: Towards a Compassionate Ethical Comity of Nations 51
Sigamoney Shakespeare
6. Distress Migration in Bihar: Factors, Causes and Responses 71
Prakash Louis
7. Covid–19 Lockdown and the Plight of Migrants: Challenges and Responses 89
Shujayathulla E. and Harshita
8. Changing Contour of Agriculture and Shifting Nature of Labour in the Context of Liberalization, Privatization and Globalization (LPG) 101
John Mohan Razu
9. Dying to Live: Theology and Migration-Identity Crisis 115
Graceson Pavei Ngade

Part-II
Issual and Perspectival Domain

10. An Appraisal on Migrants at the Roadside: Through a Feminist Lens 127
Moasenla
11. Forced by Circumstances to Migrate to the Gulf: A Religio-Cultural Perspective (Case of Kenyan Women Working in Gulf) 151
Wanjiku M. Kihuha
12. A Case Study: Migrant Workers Suffer Humiliation in Kerala 167
Martin Puthussery
13. Re-Imagining Nisungsangla from Ao Naga Perspective: A Theological Response on Forced Migration 173
Imsentiba Jamir
14. In Flight: Towards a Pastoral Care to Migrant Workers 191
Carmel Burila Villar
15. A Theology of Migration: Migrants as Prophetic Agents of Transformation 209
Sigamoney Shakespeare
16. De-Coding Human Trafficking in a Post-De-Globalizing World: Through the Prism of Christian Social Ethics 223
John Mohan Razu

Academic and Professional Profiles of the Contributors 241