CONTENTS.

PAGE

INTRODUCTION, ... 1

Conflicting elements in Hinduism, 1; Macaulay's opinion of Hinduism, 2; Ballantyne's opinion, 2; characteristics of Hindu philosophy, 3; practical application of Hindu philosophy, 3; materials for a history of Hinduism, 4; plan of the book, 5.

PART I. EARLIER RELIGIONS OF INDIA, . . . 6

CHAPTER I. EARLIEST VEDIC RELIGION, ... 6

Earliest record of Indian religion the Rig Veda, 6; India three thousand years ago: the Aryas, 7; the aborigines, 7; religious beliefs: traces of primitive Monotheism, 8; modes of expressing God by His attributes and works, 9; Aryan gods: Dyaus and Prithivi, 9; Varuna, 10; Monotheism, Polytheism, Henotheism, 13; deterioration of religious ideas, 14; Indra, 15; Agni and other gods, 15; the unknown God, 17; Vedic worship, 18; future life, 19; religion of the aborigines, 20; contemporary history of Abraham, 21.

CHAPTER II. BRAHMANISM, ... 22

Changes among the Aryas, 22; origin of caste: the Sudras, 22; subjection of the Sudras, 23; caste among the Aryas: Brahmans, Kshatriyas, Vaisyas, 24; caste legislation, 24. Religious ideas: Brahman priests, 25; the Four Vedas, 26; the Brahmanas, 26; development of Polytheism, 27; Brahma, 28; Brahmanical and Levitical sacrifices, 28; Levitical sacrifice typical, 28; Brahmanical sacrifice sacramental, 30; difficulties involved in this idea, 31. Brahman sages: the Upanishads, 32; germs of Pantheism, 32; metempsychosis and asceticism, 33; influence of philosophy on religion, 34. Other sources of religious ideas: struggle between Brahmans and Kshatriyas, 34; Rama Chandra, 35; Krishna, 36; aboriginal worship, 37; extent of Brahmanism, 37.

PAGE

CHAPTER III. BUDDHISM, ... 39

Buddha's life: his birth, 39; married life, 40; causes of change of life, 40; he renounces royalty, 41; leaves his kingdom, 42; takes to an ascetic life, 42; discovers the Four Verities, 43; communicates them to others, 44; subsequent life, 44.

System of Buddha: the Four Verities, 45; transmigration, 46; Karma, 47; difference between Buddhist and Hindu ideas, 47; Nirvana, 48; means to attain it: law of Buddha, 49; its character, 49; laws for the priesthood, 50.

Spread of Buddhism: character of its founder, 50; superior to caste, 51; and nationality, 52; his instrument persuasion, 52; zeal of his followers, 53.

Defects of Buddhism: contrast between Christ and Buddha, 54; aim, annihilation, 56; atheism, 57; absence of revelation, 57; and power, 58; deification of Buddha: introduction of idolatry, 59; want of satisfactoriness, 60; disappearance from India, 61; failure as a religion, 61.

Jainism: founders, Parswanath and Mahavira, 62; Tirthankaras, 63; way of salvation, 63; system, 64; relation to Buddhism, 64; inferiority to Buddhism, 65; subdued by Hinduism, 66.

PART II. HINDUISM, ... 68

CHAPTER IV. HINDU PHILOSOPHY, ... 68

Rise of Hinduism, 68; difficulties of the subject, 69; two features of Hinduism, philosophy and religion, 69.

Hindu philosophy: cause of the intellectual revival, 70; the chief end of man, Liberation, 70; fundamental principles: ex nihilo nihil fit, 71; the Supreme

PAGE

Spirit the only existence, 71; the Supreme Spirit unconditioned, 72; Vedantic and Christian Trinity, 72; man's spirit and matter, 73; Maya, or delusion, 74; analogy of dreamland and monomania, 74; nature of the illusion, 75; difficulties to be met, 76; metempsychosis proved by reminiscence, 76; and moral necessity, 77; vicarious atonement, 77; Karma: deeds, bonds of the spirit, 78; analogy of vapour, 79; the 'eighty-four,' 80; testing questions: origin of the illusion, 80; the law of transmigration, 81; knowledge: the way of Liberation, 82; Hindu philosophy and Buddhism, 83; popularisation of Brahmanism, 84; Hindu philosophy and Christianity, 85.

Popular Hindu philosophy: transmigration, 86; deeds are bonds, 86; man's spirit part of the Supreme, 87; popular failure of the philosophical solution, 88.

CHAPTER V. PANTHEISM AND CASTE, ... 89

Meaning of caste, 89; occupations, 90; family system, 90; pantheistic explanation of caste, 92; penalties for caste breaking, 93; lower castes recognised, 93; subdivisions of the Brahmanical caste, 94; disappearance of intermediate castes, 94; power of caste, 95; vitality of caste, 96; tyranny of caste, 96; effect of caste on the English, 97; caste propagandism, 98.

The worship of the cow: the sacrament of caste, 98; the common bond of Hinduism, 98; similar ideas in other religions, 99; its origin in India, 100; Manu's laws, 101; growth of cow worship, 101.

CHAPTER VI. PANTHEISM AND POLYTHEISM, ... 103

Place of idol worship in Hinduism, 103; apparent inconsistencies, 104; pantheistic reconciliation, 104; pantheistic basis of worship, 105; facilities for propagandism, 106; main divisions of Hinduism: Vaishnavism and Saivism, 106; principle of these divisions: faith and merit, 107; limitations of the distinction, 108; religious records: the Puranas, 108.

CHAPTER VII. VAISHNAVISM, OR WORSHIP OF VISHNU

Central principle of Vaishnavism: God's supremacy abstract representation of Vishnu, 111; his analogous to man's transmigration, 111 ; fish, tortoise, bear, and man-lion Avatars, 112 ; dwarf Avatar, 113 ; Parasu Rama Avatar, 114; Rama Chandra Avatar, 114.

PAGE

Krishna Avatar, 115 ; Krishna's youth, 115 ; Brahmanical adaptation of the story, 116 ; Brahmanical invention, 117 ; and explanation, 118 ; justification of sin, 119 ; images of Krishna, 120.

Ninth Avatar, Buddha, 120 ; fresh Avatars of Krishna, 120 ; tenth Avatar, Kalkin, 121 ; identification with the English, 121.

Hindu Worship, 123 ; devotion and works, 123 ; invocation, 123 ; image worship, 124 ; threefold explanation of it, 125 ; charms, 126 ; disappearance of sacrifice, 127.

Vishnu Worship, 128 ; presentation of body, soul, and wealth, 128 ; worship of his images, 129 ; impurities of worship, 130 ; vice a fruit of Hinduism, 131.

Vaishnava Reformers, 132 ; Ramanuja and Ramananda, 132 ; other reformers, 133.

CHAPTER VIII. SAIVISM, ... 134

Principles of Saivism, 134 ; the Vedic god Rudra, 135 ; popular conception of Siva, 135 ; the Linga, 136 ; myths and legends regarding him, 136 ; asceticism the mainstay of his worship, 137 ; popular ideas of asceticism, 138 ; drying up of the blood, 139 ; practices of modern ascetics, 139 ; their degraded character, 140.

Saiva Propagandism: other worships connected with that of Siva, 141 ; his wives and servants, 141 ; Pushkar, 142 ; Tirths, 143 ; primitive worship of Pushkar, 143 ; Saiva manipulation of the legends, 144 ; object of the Brahmans to assimilate, 145 ; Parihar Minas, 145 ; bad moral influence of the Brahmans, 146 ; bloody worship, 148 ; secret sects, 148.

CHAPTER IX. RECONCILIATION OF THE SECTS — REVIEW OF HINDUISM, ... 150

Tribal enmity of the sects, 150 ; sectarian contromenta, 151 ; reconciliation of the sects, 151 ; the

PAGE

Trimurti, 152; analogy with the Christian Trinity, 152; date of the pantheistic reconciliation, 153; summary, 154. Review of the work of Hinduism, 155; Hindu tolerance, 156; blind faith, 157; effects of Hinduism, 157; some good effects, 158.

PART III. HINDUISM AND MOHAMMEDANISM, . 160

CHAPTER X., ... 160

Rise of Mohammedanism: its principles, 160; way of salvation, 161; moral code, 161; its spread, 162; first contact with India, 163; causes of India's resistance, 164; causes of India's weakness, 165; Mohammedan conquest of India, 166; Mohammedanism fails to conquer India, 166; Akbar's policy, 167; Aurangzeb's policy, 168; fall of the Mohammedan power, 169. Little effect of Mohammedanism on Hinduism, 170; deteriorating effects, 172; effect of Hinduism on Mohammedanism, 172; triumph of Hinduism, 173. Mohammedan revival, Mahdism, 173; Mohammedan conspiracy, 174; frontier wars, 174; discovery and suppression of the conspiracy, 175; counter movement, Sayad Ahmad Khan, 175.

Hindu-Mohammedan sects, 176; the Panths, 177; Kabir Panth, 177; the Sikhs, 178; Nanak, 178; Govind, 179; characteristics of Sikhism, 179.

PART IV. HINDUISM AND CHRISTIANITY, . 181

CHAPTER XI. THEIR AFFINITIES AND ANTAGONISMS, . 181

First preaching of Christianity in India, 181; the Nestorian Christians, 182; Roman Catholic missions, 182; Protestant missions, 183.

Conditions of the contest, 184; elements of religion common to both, 184; message of Christianity to India, 185; repentance and remission of sins, 186; antagonism in higher principles, 186. Contrast in idea of salvation, 187; way of salvation, 188; vicarious atonement, 189; forgiveness, 189; through Christ, 190; transmigration, 191. Incarnation: Christian doctrine, 192; Hindu doctrine, 194. Godly life: Christian ideal, 196; Hindu ideal, 197. Doctrine of man: Christian brotherhood, Hindu caste, 199. Future life: Hindu and Christian ideals, 200.

PAGE

Modifying considerations: degraded character of many Christians, 202; good character of many Hindus, 203.

CHAPTER XII. REFORM MOVEMENTS IN HINDUISM, 205

Changes going on in Hinduism, 205; limited extent of change as yet, 205; Government and mission education, 206; unrest among the educated classes, 207.

The Brahma Samaj, Ram Mohun Roy, 208; first division in Samaj, 209; Adi Samaj, 209; lapse into Hinduism, 210; Chunder Sen and Progressive Samaj, 211; affinity to Christian Unitarianism, 211; marriage of Chunder Sen's daughter, 212; secession and formation of the Sadharana Samaj: a deistic, 213; and eclectic system, 214; its principles, 214; its failure, 215.

The Arya Samaj, 215; its founder, Dayanand Saraswati, 215; first doubts, 216; he leaves his family, 216; subsequent career, 217; interview at Ajmere, 217; his relation to the Christian Scriptures, 219; his treatment of the Veda, 221; his final dogmatic position, 221; his last words, 222; constitution of the Arya Samaj, 223; principles of the Arya Samaj, 224; its criterion of true revelation, 225; difference between it and the Brahma Samaj, 226; its influence on the educated class, 227; its present position and work, 228.

Decaying power of Hinduism, 230; modifications of caste, 230; caste reforms, 231; the Samaj movement, 231; the Indian Congress, 232.

CHAPTER XIII. POSITION AND ATTITUDE OF CHRISTIANITY, 233

Result of the past: Are missions a failure? 233; progress of Christian community, 234; progress of the Protestant Church, 235; retardation of progress, 236; causes of retardation, 237.

Methods: Salvation Army, 238; different practices in administering baptism, 240; New Testament principles, 241; need of maintaining individualism, 243.

PAGE

Attitude to be preserved: Intolerance, 244; Hindu tolerance, 245; need of firmness, 245; advantages of union with the Home Churches, 246; temptations to relaxation, 246. Spirit of Christianity: mission amity, 248; position of Europeans and Eurasians, 250.

Need and encouragements for further effort: past progress, 251; progress of female education, 253; state of religious thought in India, 254; lesson of religious history of India, 254.

APPENDIX A.—Buddha's System, ... 259
,, B.—Schools of Hindu Philosophy, . . . 261
,, C.—Hindu Logic, ... 263
,, D.—Mohammedan Doctrine of Sin, . . . 264
,, E.—Natural Religion in Hindu Literature, . . 265
,, F.—Rev. James Gray on Arya Samaj, . . . 267
,, G.—Statistics of Protestant Missions, . . . 269

About the Book & the Author 270