

Contents

Foreword	xi
Preface	xv
Chapter 1: Introduction	1
1.1 General context of prophet Jeremiah	1
1.2 Jeremiah as a contemporary exemplary prophet	8
1.3 Methodology for Jeremiah-Dalit discourse	10
1.3.1 Text that performs	11
1.3.2 Not behind the text but in front of the text	13
1.3.3 Common platform between biblical and Dalit worlds	14
1.4 Rationale in selecting Jeremiah for Dalit liberation discourse	17
1.5 Structural plan of the Book of Jeremiah	20
Chapter 2: Socio-Historical and Political Background of Jeremiah	21
2.1 Introduction	21
2.2 Jeremiah's Early Career (622-605 BCE)	22
2.2.1 Josianic reformation from 622 BCE	23
2.2.2 The situation in the ancient West Asia at the time of Jeremiah's ministry: An overview	24
2.2.3 Post-Josianic reform period of Jeremiah's ministry	26

2.3	Jeremiah's Later Career (604-586 BCE)	27
2.3.1	Events related to the 597 BCE	28
2.3.2	Final events related to the destruction of Jerusalem and the Temple	28
2.4	Significant theological pointers of Jeremiah's socio-historical context	31
2.4.1	Israel's covenant with Yahweh is rooted in the memories and mandates of the Sinai covenant tradition	31
2.4.2	Jeremiah communicates the pathos of Yahweh	32
2.4.3	Jeremiah in conflict with royal-temple ideology of Jerusalem	33
Chapter 3: God's Powerful Word through Jeremiah (1:1-19)		37
3.1	Introduction	38
3.2	Introductory note in 1:1-3	39
3.3	Jeremiah's call narrative in 1:4-10	40
3.4	The symbolic vision reports in 1:11-16	43
3.5	God's charge to Jeremiah in 1:17-19	45
3.6	Appropriating of 1:1-19 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	46
Chapter 4: From Hope to Disaster in God's Word (2:1-3:5)		49
4.1	Introduction	52
4.2	The Lord and his Bride in 2:1-3	52
4.3	The charge of unfaithfulness in 2:4-13	54
4.4	The court evidence 2:14-3:5	55
4.5	Appropriating of 2:1-3:5 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	58
Chapter 5: Return to God: There is Terror on Every Side of the Land (3:6-6:30)		61
5.1	Introduction	67
5.2	Comparison between Judah and Israel in 3:6-13	68
5.3	Invitation for Judah to return in 3:14-25	69

5.4	A chance given to Judah to repent and return in 4:1-4	70
5.5	Terror on every side on account of God's judgment in 4:5-18	71
5.6	Disaster after disaster follows in 4:19-31	73
5.7	The lawsuit speech in 5:1-13	74
5.8	Invading enemy on Judah in 5:14-17	74
5.9	Some relief from devastation in 5:18-19	75
5.10	Motif of judgment and sentence in 5:20-31	75
5.11	Warning of an invading army on Judah in 6:1-8	76
5.12	The theme of judgment continues in 6:9-26	77
5.13	Jeremiah's prophetic vocation in 6:27-30	78
5.14	Appropriating of 4:6-6:30 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	79
Chapter 6:	Jeremiah's Temple Sermon (7:1-8:3)	87
6.1	Introduction	89
6.2	Historical and socio-religious setting of the Temple Sermon in Jeremiah 7: 1-15	90
6.3	Jeremiah's presentation of Covenantalism against individualism	95
6.4	The Covenant and Decalogue principles and their practice in the Temple sermon	99
6.5	Invincibility of Jerusalem traditions shattered in the Temple sermon	102
6.6	Temple sermon and its implication for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	106
6.7	Sinful worship in Jerusalem and the subsequent punishment in Jer 7:16-8:3	111
6.8	Appropriating the text of 7:16-8:3 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	112
Chapter 7:	No Balm in Gilead (8:4-10:25)	115
7.1	Introduction	119
7.2	Judah turns away from Yahweh in 8:4-17	120
7.3	Grief beyond healing in 8:18-9:3	122

7.4	Warning to the future of Judah in 9:4-11	124
7.5	The land lying in waste in 9:12-16	125
7.6	The mourning of Zion in 9:17-22	126
7.7	True glory in 9:23-26	126
7.8	No one is like the Lord in 10:1-16	128
7.9	Pack up and ready to go in 10:17-25	129
7.10	Appropriating 8:4-10:25 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	130
Chapter 8: The Suspension of God's Covenant and The Confessions of Jeremiah (11:1-20:18)		141
8.1	Introduction	154
8.2	The Broken Covenant in 11:1-17	155
8.3	A lamb led to slaughter in 11:18-23	156
8.4	Plight of the righteous in 12:1-6	158
8.5	The Pathos of God and God's plucking up of other nations in 12:7-17	159
8.6	The Exile and its explanation in 13:1-14	161
8.7	The Peril of ignoring Yahweh in 13:15-27	163
8.8	Unanswered Prayers in 14:1-15:9	164
8.9	The lament of Jeremiah in 15:10-21	167
8.10	The Messenger's shock over the Message in 16:1-21	169
8.11	Our hope is in the name of the Lord in 17:1-27	171
8.12	The Potter and the Clay in 18:1-23	178
8.13	The Broken Flask in 19:1-15	181
8.14	Jeremiah's Personal lamentation in 20:1-18	186
8.15	Appropriating Jer 11:1-20:18 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	192
Chapter 9: The Way of Life and The Way of Death (21:1-25:38)		219
9.1	Introduction	227
9.2	The confusion of Judah over the choice of life and death in 21:1-10	228
9.3	Concerns related to the kings of Judah in 21:11-23:8	229

9.4	Concerns related to the prophets of Judah in 23:9-40	233
9.5	Life and blessing, death and curse in 24:1-10	236
9.6	Prophetic activity of Jeremiah in 25:1-38	237
9.7	Appropriating of Jer 21-25 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	239
Chapter 10: It is the Lord Who Sent Me (26:1-29:32)		253
10.1	Introduction	259
10.2	The speech of Jeremiah in the court of the Lord's house in 26:1-19, 24	260
10.3	The story of Prophet Uriah and King Jehoiakim in 26:20-23	261
10.4	The dramatic preaching of Jeremiah in 27:1-22	262
10.5	Conflict between Jeremiah and Hananiah in 28:1-17	265
10.6	Exchange of letters between Jeremiah and the captives of exile in 29:1-23	266
10.7	Exchange of letters between Jeremiah and Shemaiah of Nehelam in 29:24-32	268
10.8	Appropriating of Jer 26-29 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	269
Chapter 11: Jeremiah's Book of Comfort: To Reconcile, Integrate and Build (30:1-33:26)		281
11.1	Introduction	289
11.2	Jeremiah's book of consolation (chapters 30-33)	291
11.3	Implications of the message of comfort and restoration in Jeremiah for the pastoral care and counselling today	300
11.4	Implications of the message of comfort and restoration in Jeremiah for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	305
11.5	Conclusion	310
Chapter 12: The Dishonorable Behavior of Judah (34:1-35:19)		313
12.1	Introduction	316

12.2 The dishonorable behavior of Jerusalem's citizens in 34:1-22	317
12.3 Judah's godlessness: Jeremiah and Rechabites in 35:1-19	318
12.4 Appropriating of 34:1-35:19 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	319
Chapter 13: The 'Baruch's Document' (36:1-45:5)	325
13.1 Introduction	339
13.2 Jeremiah's Scroll in 36:1-32	340
13.3 Jeremiah and Zedekiah in 37:1-38:28	342
13.4 The fall of Jerusalem in 39:1-18	346
13.5 Jeremiah's release in 40:1-6 and Gedaliah's Governorship in 40: 7-41:18	348
13.6 The refusal of Judah to listen in 42:1-43:7	351
13.7 Jeremiah in Egypt and his last words in 43:8-44:30	353
13.8 Baruch's despair in 45:1-5	356
13.9 Appropriating Jer 36:1-45:5 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	357
Chapter 14: Oracles Concerning the Nations (46:1-51:64)	373
14.1 Introduction	386
14.2 Oracle concerning Egypt in 46:1-28	387
14.3 Oracle concerning Philistines in 47:1-7	389
14.4 Oracle concerning Moab in 48:1-47	390
14.5 Oracle concerning various nations in 49:1-39	392
14.6 Oracle concerning Babylon in 50:1-51:64	395
14.7 Appropriating Jer 46-51 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	403
Chapter 15: Historical Conclusion with Hopeful Signs (52:1-34)	421
15.1 Introduction	423
15.2 Summary of the reign of the kings of Judah in 52:1-16	424
15.3 Desecration of God's temple in Jerusalem in 52:17-23	425
15.4 Summary of the prominent persons deported in 52:24-30	425

15.5 Release of Jehoiachin from the prison in Babylon in 52:31-34	426
15.6 Appropriating Jer 52:1-34 for Dalit Liberative Hermeneutics	427
Chapter 16: General Conclusion	431
Selected Bibliography	439
Glossary of Terms	451
Scripture Index	455