Contents

Editorial v

Part 1: Phenomenological and Existential Perspectives 1

1. Modernity and Exile of the Body 3
   Nishant Alphonse Irudayadason
2. Liberating the Body: Mythonomologic Resources 13
   Keith D'Souza
3. Humans as Bodily: A Phenomenological Probe 27
   Johnson J. Puthenpurackal
4. Body, Desire and Insatiability 41
   Felix Fernandes
5. Body, Gaze, Shame and Counter-Gaze 51
   Victor Ferrao
6. Body and Consciousness: From Somatic Correlates to Causes 65
   Gregory Mathew Malayil

Part 2: Social, Political and Gender Issues 75

7. Body, Bio-Politics and Bioethics 77
   S. Sekar Sebastin
8. Stereotyped Bodies: A Christian Critique of the Impact of Race, Caste, and Colour in Contemporary Indian Society 87
   James D. Chellappa
9. Humans for Sale: Objectification, Commodification and Reification of Human Beings 101
   Ashley Miranda
10. A Medieval Perspective on the Body: St. Thomas Aquinas and the Male-Female Difference 115
    Dolreich Pereira

11. In Search of Woman: Re-making Ourselves 127
Gayatri Mendanha

12. Body, Gender and Sexuality in Family 137
A. Pushparajan

Part 3: Approaches of Science and Technology 149

13. Is the Body Merely Bodily?: Reflections on the Human Body as a Symbol in Bio and Medical Sciences 151
S. Stephen Jayard

14. Redesigning the Human Body in Science and Technology 161
Noel D'Costa

15. Body in the Media: Organs without Body 173
Francis Arackal

Part 4: Spiritual Dimensions 185

16. The Body of the Earthlings in Laudato Si': A Philosophical Appreciation 187
Kuruvilla Pandikattu

17. Fasting and Feasting: Differing Philosophies of the Body 195
George Karuvelil

18. Body, Suffering, Death and Afterlife 203
John Peter Vallabadoss

19. The Buddhist Concept of the Body 215
Kurian Alumkal

20. The Body in Śaiva Siddhānta 225
Andrew Anbarasu

21. A Meditative Reflection on the Human Body: Body as Media of Dialogue and Communication 237
James Purathail

Statement of ACPI Research Seminar on "Philosophizing the Body: Challenges and Opportunities" 245

Contributors 247