

Contents

Foreword	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
List of Figures	xvii
Chapter 1: Introduction	1
1.1. Methodology	5
1.1.1. Library Research	5
1.1.2. Quantitative Research	6
1.1.3. Qualitative Research	6
1.2. An Overview of Recent Missiological Discussions on Salvation in Relations to People of Other Faiths	7
1.3. Theoretical Frameworks	13
1.3.1. Glocal and Glocalization	13
1.3.2. Exclusivism, Inclusivism, and Pluralism	14
1.3.3. Ecclesiocentrism to Relativism	17
1.3.4. Worldview and Theory of Success	18
1.4. Delimitations	19
1.4.1. The Scope of Salvation	20
1.4.2. Case Study – BCM Mizo Missionaries	20
1.4.3. Questionnaire	21
1.5. Definitions of Key Terms	21
1.5.1. Mizo Baptists or Baptist Church of Mizoram	21
1.5.2. Conversations	22
1.5.3. Evangelicals and Evangelicalism	22
1.5.4. Missional and Missional Church	24
1.5.5. World Christianity	25
1.5.6. Salvation	26
Chapter 2: Missionaries and Salvation in the Mission of the Church	31
2.1. Salvation and Mission in the Book of Acts	31

2.1.1. Salvation for the Jews (Acts 4:12)	33
2.1.2. Salvation for the God-Fearers (Acts 11:14)	35
2.1.3. Salvation for the Gentiles (Acts 16:31)	37
2.1.4. Reflection on Salvation in the Book of Acts	39
2.2. Salvation and Mission in the Modern Missionary Movement	42
2.2.1. Salvation as Proselytization/Christianization	43
2.2.2. Salvation as Liberation	46
2.2.3. Salvation as Saving Souls	49
2.2.4. Salvation and Conversion in Mission	52
2.3. Salvation and Mission in Relation to Other Religions	53
2.3.1. Difficulties among the Hindus	54
2.3.2. Difficulties among the Muslims	56
2.3.3. Difficulties among the Buddhists	58
2.3.4. Missionaries and Other Religions	60
2.4. Evangelicals Conversations on Salvation in Relation to Other Religions	63
Chapter 3: Conversations on the Soteriological Motives of Mission	67
3.1. Salvation and Other Religions	67
3.1.1. Salvific Validity of Non-Christian Religions	68
3.1.2. Revelation in Non-Christian Religions	72
3.1.3. Salvation of the Unevangelized	75
3.1.4. “Being Saved” and World Religions	78
3.2. Contemporary Interpretations of Salvation in Missions	81
3.2.1. Critiques on Individualistic Concept of Salvation	81
3.2.2. Reflections on “saved from,” “saved for,” and “being saved”	85
3.2.3. Assurance of “Being saved” and Mission	88
3.2.4. “Being saved” and Christianity in Mission	91
3.3. Relating Theology and Practice in Missionary Context	93
3.3.1. Conversion of the Missionaries	94
3.3.2. Fresh Emphases for Mission from Contemporary Conversations	96
Chapter 4: Baptist Church of Mizoarm and its Missionaries (A Case Study)	99
4.1. Baptist Church of Mizoram and its Mission	100
4.1.1. Historical Background of BCM	100
4.1.2. Development of BCM Mission	103
4.1.3. Theological Impacts of Foreign Missionaries	110
4.1.4. Interpretations of Success in BCM Mission	114
4.2. Findings on Motives of Mission among the Mizo Baptists	118
4.2.1. Conversion (saving souls)	118
4.2.2. Fear of Hell	120

4.2.3. The Great Commission	122
4.2.4. The Glory of God	124
4.3. Findings on Soteriological motive of BCM Missionaries	125
4.3.1. BCM Missionary Viewpoint on Motive of Mission	126
4.3.2. BCM Missionary Viewpoint on Non-Christian Religions	129
4.3.3. Relationship between Motives and Success in BCM Mission	131
4.3.4. Significance of Soteriological motive of Mission in BCM Mission	133
4.4. Reflection on the Findings of BCM Missionary Theory and Practice	134
4.4.1. The Question of knowing a True Convert	135
Chapter 5: Salvation in Local-Global Missiological Conversations	139
5.1. “Glocal” Perspective in Missiology	140
5.2. BCM Mission and Other Religions in Glocal Perspective	141
5.2.1. Reflections on Salvation and Revelations in Other Religions	142
5.2.2. “Being saved” and “Changing Religions”	145
5.3. BCM Motives of Mission in Glocal Perspective	147
5.3.1. “Saving Souls,” “Born Again,” and Biblical Salvation	148
5.3.2. Fear of Hell and Eternal Punishment	151
5.3.3. The Great Commission	154
5.4. BCM Mission in Local-global Missiological Conversations	159
5.4.1. The Work of the Triune God in Local Theology	159
5.4.2. Evangelical Missiology and BCM Missionaries	161
5.4.3. The Glory of God in Mission	168
5.4.4. The Inevitability of Local-global Conversations	171
Conclusion	175
Appendix A: Questionnaire (Mizo)	179
Appendix B: Questionnaire (English)	185
Appendix C: Interviewees (Confidential: names are kept anonymous)	191
Bibliography	193