CONTENTS

Editor's Introduction ix
General Introduction xi

PART ONE: MODERNISM 1
Introduction 1
1. What is Modernism? 1
a. The Renaissance 1
b. "Modern" Philosophy Surfaces 3
c. Some Hermeneutics 4
2. Modernist Themes in Detail 5
a. At Least Two Phases 5
b. The Anthropological Turn 5
c. The Primacy of Reason 7
d. The Dethronement of God and the Spiritual 10
Conclusion 11

PART TWO: SOME KEY POSTMODERNISTS 13
Introduction 13
1. Ferdinand de Saussure (1857-1915) 14
2. Lévy-Strauss (1908-2009) and Structuralism 18
3. Jacques Derrida (1930-2004) 21
4. Jean-Francois Lyotard (1924-1998) 31
5. Michel Foucault (1926-1984) 35
6. Jean Baudrillard (1929-2007) 44
7. Jacques Lacan (1901-1981) 47
8. Some Postmodernist Feminist Thinkers 51

PART THREE: POSTMODERNISM: A SCHOOL OR AN ATTITUDE? 61
1. Anti-Rationalism 63
2. Anti-Subjectivism 64
3. Anti-Humanism 64
4. Some Other Implications 64

PART FOUR: SOME CRITICAL COMMENTS ON POSTMODERNISM 69
1. René Descartes (1596-1650): The Villain of the Piece 69
2. Blaise Pascal (1623-1662): Absolute Rationalism is Irrational 73
3. Jürgen Habermas (1929-): Rehabilitator of Reason 75
4. Ken Wilber (1949-): Rehabilitator of the Subject 77

APPENDICES 89
1. The Action of the Invaders 89
2. Cyril Desbruslais, SJ: A Philosopher of Liberation 93

Glossary 97
Bibliography 105