Contents

Editorial vii
Chief Guest's Address xv

Part 1: Hermeneutical Dialogue of Science, Philosophy and Religion 1

1. Science & Philosophy: Companions in a Common Mission 3
   Job Kozhamthadam
2. The Social Necessity yet Insufficiency of Science 17
   Keith D'Souza
3. Science and Religion in Dialogue: A Chardinian Alternative 31
   Francis Aykaraparampil
4. Science and Buddhism:
   Philosophizing from Our Historical Context 43
   Joy A. P.
5. Interconnectedness of the Universe and the Ultimate Principle in Science and Vedanta 55
   Stephen C. Thadam
6. From Matter in Physics to Prime Matter in Metaphysics 67
   George Panthanmackel

Part 2: Ideological and Post-Colonial Critique of Science, Technology and Religion 79

7. Modern Man and Modern Science: Hannah Arendt 81
   Dolreich Pereira
8. Colonial Science in British India and Indian Responses 93
   James Ponniah
9. Fostering a Scientific Temper: A Constitutional Imperative 105
   Jose D. Maliekal
10. Science and Indigenous Knowledge: Resisting Biopiracy 117
    Raju Felix Crasta

11. Science in Hinduism: Facts and Myths 131
Ivan D'Souza
12. Islam's Contribution to Science and The Present Scenario 145
Jose Pennaparambil

Part 3: Post-modern Critique of Science: Deconstructing 'Rational Objectivity' 159

13. Enrichment and Impoverishment: A Wittgensteinian Perspective on Science and Scientism 161
Jose Nandhikkara
14. Postmodernity and Philosophy of Science 175
Nishant Alphonse Irudayadason
15. Schizoanalysis of Science and Technology 189
Victor Ferrao

Part 4: Trans-Humanistic Perspectives 201

16. From Homo Sapiens to Homo Deus or Homo Miseratur? Addressing the 4th Industrial Revolution 203
Sooraj George Pittappillil
17. The Computational and Non-Computational Dimensions of Human Consciousness: A Critique on Roger Penrose's ORCH-OR Theory, Focusing on Artificial Intelligence 219
Gregory Mathew Malayil
18. Artificial Intelligence: Prospects and Perils 233
Francis Arackal Thummy
19. Immortality and Science 247
Biju Pallipadan

ACPI Statement 259
Contributors 261
Index 267