

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Chapter 1: A Historical Survey of Inter-Religious Relations In India	1
1. Inter-Religious Relations in Pre-Historic India	4
2. Inter-Religious Relations in Vedic Period	5
3. Conflict between Buddhism and Brahmanism	9
4. Conflicts between Jainism and Hinduism	11
5. Hindus and the so-called ‘Foreign Religions’	14
Concluding Remarks	18
Chapter 2: Inter-Religious Conflicts in India: The Present Scenario	21
1. The Background of Inter-religious Conflict	22
2. Conflicts between Hindu and Muslim in Post-Independent India	26
3. Violence against Indian Christians	29
4. More Inter-religious Violence After 2014	31
Concluding remarks	32
Chapter 3: Indian Attempts Toward Securing Inter-Religious Relations	35
1. Attempts from the Hindu Community	36

2. Attempts from the Sikh Community	41
3. Attempts from the Muslim Community	43
4. Attempts from Christians	46
4.1. Protestant Contributions towards Harmony of Religions	46
4.2. Catholic Contributions towards Harmony of Religions	50
5. Christian Approaches to Other Religions	54
6. The Way Ahead: Some Practical Suggestions	56
Concluding Remarks	58
Chapter 4: Modern Indian Gurus' Contribution for Inter-Faith Relations	61
1. Sree Narayana Guru's Contribution	62
2. Yogananda Paramhansa's Contribution	63
3. Sathya Sai Baba's Contribution	67
3.1. Unity of Religions and Brotherhood/Sisterhood of Men and Women	68
3.2. Emphasis on Togetherness	71
4. Sri Sri Ravishankar's Contribution	73
5. The Perceived Oneness of Religion: A Nucleus in Inter-Religious Relations	75
Concluding Remarks	78
Chapter 5: Modern Indian Gurus' Interpretations of Jesus Christ: Their Significance for Inter-Religious Relations	81
1. Positive Attitude and Attachment to Jesus Christ	82
2. The Jesus of the Indian Gurus: Relevance in Inter-faith Relations	86
2.1. Jesus an Avatāra Standing Alongside Hindu Deities and Other Enlightened Masters	86
2.2. 'Jesus of India' in Dialogue with Indian Spiritual Masters	88

2.3. The Universal Christ – a Possible Meeting Point of Religions	89
2.4. The Understanding of Jesus as ‘Love’ – A Uniting String	94
2.5. Mystical Experience of Christ as a Mean to Harmony of Religions	96
2.6. Jesus’ Core Message Points to Harmonious Relationship	98
2.7. Similarities between the Essential Teachings of Jesus and Hinduism	100
2.8. Jesus’ Utter Humanness: An Emblem of Dialogical Life	104
2.9. Jesus’ Ontological Oneness with the Father	106
Concluding Remarks	106
Chapter 6: Evangelicals’ Contributions Towards Inter-Faith Relations	111
1. Who are Evangelicals?	112
2. From Lausanne to Cape Town	114
3. The Fuller Initiatives	117
4. The Baptist Initiatives	119
5. Evangelical Missionaries Changing their Attitude	122
6. Evangelical Christians Perspective on Inter-religious Relations	123
6.1. Christian Self-Understanding	123
6.2. The Importance of Knowing the ‘Other’	125
6.3. Inter-religious Relations as a Relationship between Adherents of Religions	125
6.4. Balancing Commitment and Cooperation	127
6.5. Love as a Key to Inter-religious Relations	129
6.6. Inter-faith Dialogue for Inter-religious Relations	130
Concluding Remarks	140

Chapter 7: Inter-Religious Dialogue for Conflict Resolution: Some Practical Suggestions	143
1. What is Inter-Religious Dialogue?	144
2. Four-tiers of Dialogue	145
2.1. Communion Dialogue: Dialogue at the Spiritual Level	145
2.2. Academic Dialogue: Dialogue as a Learning Process	147
2.3. Public Dialogue: Dialogue as Living Together in a Community	148
2.4. Mass Dialogue: Mass Movement towards Harmony	150
Concluding Remarks	151
Chapter 8: Towards Inter-Religious Relations	153
1. Resist Not Evil	154
2. To have Belongingness to One Another	157
2.1. Sin Separates Us	159
2.2. God of Togetherness	159
2.3. Jesus Breaks Barriers and Builds Bridges	161
3. We Need Each Other	163
4. Cherishing our Differences	166
5. Securing Positive Relations	166
6. Love is the Key	167
Concluding Remarks	171
Bibliography	173
Index	198