

CONTENTS

Preface	Page viii
Acknowledgments	x
Contributors	xii
A Biblical Masala: An Orientation to Our Book David J. Chalcraft (Liverpool)	1

SECTION ONE

Historical Episodes of Biblical Studies in India from a British Perspective

1 Strategies Past, Present and Future: The Context and Variety of Biblical Studies in Indian Culture and Society David J. Chalcraft (Liverpool)	31
2 English and Indian Readings of Naboth's Vineyard: The Role of Identity and Context in the Sociological Meaning and Use of Biblical Texts David J. Chalcraft (Liverpool)	78
3 Nation and Text: The Biblical Roots of Hindu Nationalism Hugh S. Piper (Sheffield)	126

SECTION TWO

Readings with a Social Conscience

4 Holiness School's Response to Economic Injustice: Reading Leviticus 25 in the Multi-Religious and Cultural Context of India P. Joseph Titus (Bangalore)	139
5 A Dialogue between Indian and Biblical Social Settings: Reading the Two Parables of Rich Men (Luke 12.16-21 and 16.19-31) Contextually V.J. John (Kolkata)	152

SECTION THREE

Dalit/Madiga Hermeneutics

- | | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 6 | The Context of Dalit Christians in Rural Andhra Pradesh: Christian Faith, Caste and Culture
Jeeva Kumar Ravela (Hyderabad) | 177 |
| 7 | Encountering the Bible: Listening to the Voices of Madiga Christians
Jeeva Kumar Ravela and David J. Chalcraft (Hyderabad & Liverpool) | 195 |
| 8 | Why are times not kept by the Almighty?' – Job, Violence and God: A Dalit Contextual Reading of Job 24
Jeeva Kumar Ravela (Hyderabad) | 218 |

SECTION FOUR

Tribal Hermeneutics

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 9 | An Introduction to Tribal Interpretation of the Bible
Zhodi Angami (Jorhat) | 241 |
| 10 | Reading Amos 6.1-7 in the Light of Mizo Values and Ethos
K. Lallawmzuala (Aizawl) | 250 |
| 11 | Seeing Jesus through Tribal Eyes
Zhodi Angami (Jorhat) | 269 |
| 12 | A Tribal God for a Tribal People: Reading the Creation Narratives of Genesis and the Prologue of John's Gospel from an Angami Perspective
Zhodi Angami (Jorhat) | 292 |

SECTION FIVE

An Empirical Turn? The (Visual) Ethnography of Biblical Encounter

- | | | |
|----|--|-----|
| 13 | The Use of the Bible in the Institutional Body Language of Christian Schools in India: Mediating Western; Christian; or Western-Christian Culture in Contemporary India?
Sally Elton-Chalcraft (Lancaster) | 325 |
|----|--|-----|

- 14 'Bad Fellows' Doing a 'Cursed Job': Reading the Bible with
'Ordinary' Autowallahs in Chennai 371
Arren Bennet Lawrence (Chennai)