

Contents

Acknowledgements	xiii
Foreword	xv
Preface	xvii
Abbreviations	xxi
Introduction	1-10
A. Statement of the Problem	1
B. Elaboration of the Problem	1
C. Importance of the Study	4
D. Definition of Terms	4
1. Revolutionary Motif	4
2. Miracle Narrative	4
3. Postcolonial	5
E. Scope and Limitation	5
F. Previous Research	6
G. Method of Research	8
H. Structure	9

Chapter 1

Miracles in the Lukan Context

1.1. Introduction	11
1.2. Jewish Miracle Stories in the Old Testament	11-20
1.2.1. Moses and Miracle Stories	12
1.2.2. Joshua and Miracle Stories	15
1.2.3. Miracle Stories of Elijah and Elisha	16
1.2.4. Daniel and Miracle Stories	20
1.3. The Miracle Stories in the Intertestamental Literature	21-25
1.4. Miracles Stories in the Mediterranean and Greco-Roman Context	25-32
1.5. Miracles in Pauline Epistles	32
1.6. Miracle Stories in Non-Lukan Gospels	33-37
1.6.1. Mark	33

1.6.2. Matthew	35
1.6.3. John	37
1.7. Miracles in Lukan Writings	39-45
1.7.1. Acts of the Apostles	39
1.7.2. Gospel of Luke	43
1.8. Some Features of the Miracle Stories in the Context of Luke	45-47
1.8.1. Social Element	45
1.8.2. Socio-Economic Feature	46
1.8.3. Socio-Cultural and Political Feature	46
Summary	47-48

Chapter 2

Social Context of the Lukan Community

2.1. Introduction	49-50
2.2. Social Stratification of the Greco-Roman World	50-61
2.2.1. The Ruler Class	53
2.2.2. The Governing Class	53
2.2.3. The Retainers	55
2.2.4. The Religionists	55
2.2.5. The Merchants and Traders	55
2.2.6. The Peasants	56
2.2.6.1. Small Freeholders	57
2.2.6.2. Tenant Farmers	57
2.2.6.3. Landless Peasants	57
2.2.6.4. Day Labourers	58
2.2.7. The Artisans	59
2.2.8. The Unclean and the Degraded	59
2.2.9. The Expendables	61
2.3. Community Life Under Political Power	61-66
2.3.1. Power of Violence and Terror	62
2.3.2. Power of Humiliation and Marginalization	64
2.3.3. The Social Roots of Jewish Revolt	64
2.4. Community Life Under Economic Order	66-73
2.4.1. Burden of Taxation	67
2.4.2. Over-population	70
2.4.3. Natural Disasters	70
2.4.4. Indebtedness of the Masses	71
2.5. Community Life Under Religious Situation	73-78
2.5.1. Religious Institution	73
2.5.2. Oppressive Interpretation of Torah	75
2.5.3. Purity System an Alienation of the Masses	76
2.6. Geographical Location of the Lukan Community	78-79
Summary	79-80

Chapter 3 Postcolonial Hermeneutics and Luke-Acts

3.1. Introduction	81
3.2. A Review of Key Studies and their Method	81-91
3.3. The Postcolonialism	91-111
3.3.1. Definition	93
3.3.2. The Prefix “Post”	97
3.3.3. Origin and Development of Postcolonial Hermeneutics	97
3.3.4. Some of the Main Characteristics of Postcolonial Studies	102
3.3.4.1. A Critical Stance or Revolutionary Reading Strategy	102
3.3.4.2. Resistance Discourse	102
3.3.4.3. Contrapuntal Reading	103
3.3.4.4. Mimicry	103
3.3.4.5. Ambivalence	104
3.3.4.6. Hybridity	106
3.3.4.7. Hybridized Identity	108
3.3.4.8. Appropriation	110
3.4. Postcolonial Reading of Luke	111-117
3.4.1. The Author of Luke-Acts: An Agent of Marginalised and Oppressed	112
3.4.2. Anti-Colonial Movements in Luke	113
3.4.3. Colonial and Anti-Colonial Expressions in Luke	113
3.4.4. Luke as a Counter-hegemonic Discourse	115
3.4.5. Luke’s Story of Jesus is a Postcolonial Resistant Story (Lk 13:30; 18:18-30; 22:25-27; etc.)	116
3.4.6. Colonial Mimicry of Luke	117
3.5. Reading Miracle Narratives of Luke from a Postcolonial Perspective	117-118
Summary	119

Chapter 4 Postcolonial Reading of Miracle Narratives Exclusive to Luke

4.1. Introduction	121-122
4.2. Miracles of Combat Against Unmerited and Vulnerable Structure	122-144
4.2.1. The Great Catch of Fish (5:1-11)	123
4.2.1.1. Locating the Text	123
4.2.1.2. Conventional Understandings of the Miracle Narrative	123
4.2.1.3. A Postcolonial Reading of Luke 5:1-11	124
4.2.1.3.1. Life of the Fisherman	124

4.2.1.3.2. Mimicking for Alternative Life of the Masses	126
4.2.1.3.3. Imperial Lordship Dissipated	128
4.2.2. The Raising of Widow's Son at Nain (7:11-17)	130
4.2.2.1. Locating the Text	130
4.2.2.2. Conventional Understandings of the Miracle Narrative	132
4.2.2.3. A Postcolonial Reading of Luke 7:11-17	134
4.2.2.3.1. Life of the Widows	134
4.2.2.3.2. The Widow as the Other and the Hybrid Subject	136
4.2.2.3.3. Dichotomy of Power and Powerless	137
4.2.3. A Man with Dropsy Cured (14:1-5)	139
4.2.3.1. Locating the Text	139
4.2.3.2. Conventional Understandings of the Narrative	140
4.2.3.3. A Postcolonial Reading of Luke 14:1-5 Power Mimicry to Liberate	141
4.3. Miracles Challenging Gender Exploitation and Racism	145-159
4.3.1. The Narrative of the Exorcism of Mary Magdalene (8:1-3)	146
4.3.1.1. Locating the Text	146
4.3.1.2. Conventional Understandings of the Miracle Narrative	147
4.3.1.3. A Postcolonial Reading of Luke 8:1-3 Decomartmentalized Male and Female	148
4.3.2. The Miracle Narrative of the Ten Lepers Cleansed (17:11-19)	150
4.3.2.1. Locating the Text	150
4.3.2.2. Leper and their Life	151
4.3.2.3. Samaritans in the New Testament	152
4.3.2.4. Conventional Understandings of the Miracle Narrative	153
4.3.2.5. A Postcolonial Reading of Luke 17:11-19 Honour and Shame Have Been Neutralized	156
4.4. Miracle of Restoring Identity	159-167
4.4.1. A Woman Freed from Her Infirmary (13:10-17)	160
4.4.1.1. Locating the Text	160
4.4.1.2. Conventional Understandings of the Narrative	161
4.4.1.3. A Postcolonial Reading of Luke 13:10-1 Resignifying Status and Gender	164
4.5. Miracle of Non-violent Resistance	167-171
4.5.1. The Miracle Narrative of the Servant's Ear Healed (22:47-53)	167

4.5.1.1. Locating the Text	167
4.5.1.2. Conventional Understandings of the Miracle Narrative	168
4.5.1.3. Postcolonial Reading of Luke 22:47-53 Resistance Discourse of Violence	169
Summary	171-175

Chapter 5
Postcolonial Reading of Select Healing Miracles
in Luke Paralleled in Other Synoptic Gospels

5.1. Introduction	177-179
5.2. Miracles of Emancipation from Dehumanizing Forces	179-197
5.2.1. The Cure of a Demoniac in the Synagogue (4:31-37)	179
5.2.1.1. Locating the Text	179
5.2.1.2. Conventional Understanding of the Narrative of Demoniac Cured	181
5.2.1.3. A Postcolonial Reading of Luke 4:31-37	184
5.2.1.3.1. The Life of Demoniac	184
5.2.1.3.2. The Authority of Jesus is a Mimicry	185
5.2.2. Peter's Mother-in-law Cured of a Fever (4:38-39)	188
5.2.2.1. Locating the Text	188
5.2.2.2. Conventional Understanding of the Miracle	189
5.2.2.3. Postcolonial Reading of Luke 4:38-39 Power Mimicry to Fight against Oppression and to Promote Rights	190
5.2.3. The Epileptic Boy Cured (9:37-43a)	193
5.2.3.1. Locating the Text	193
5.2.3.2. The Epileptic Boy	194
5.2.3.3. Conventional Understanding of the Epileptic Boy Cured	194
5.2.3.4. The Postcolonial Reading of Luke 9:37-43a The Power Mimicry to Defeat God-opposing Powers	195
5.3. Miracles of Self-determination and Solidarity with the Margins	197-207
5.3.1. The Cured of the Paralytic (5:18-26)	197
5.3.1.1. Locating the Text	197
5.3.1.2. Conventional Understanding of the Narrative	198
5.3.1.3. A Postcolonial Reading of Luke 5:18-25 The Power Mimicry for Solidarity with the Margins	200
5.3.2. The Cure of a Man's Withered Hand (6:6-11)	203
5.3.2.1. Locating the Text	203
5.3.2.2. Conventional Understandings of the Miracle Narrative	204

5.3.2.3. The Postcolonial Reading of Luke 6:6-11	205
The Power Mimicry as Contrasting the Dominant for Self-determination
5.4. Miracles of Hybridity and Breaking of Gender and Racial Boundaries	207-218
5.4.1. The Cure of the Centurion's Servant (7:1-10)	208
5.4.1.1. Locating the Text	208
5.4.1.2. Conventional Understandings of the Miracle Narrative	209
5.4.1.3. The Postcolonial Reading of Luke 7:1-10	211
5.4.2. A Woman's Hemorrhage Cured (8:43-48)	215
5.4.2.1. Locating the Text	215
5.4.2.2. Conventional Understandings of the Woman's Hemorrhage Cured	215
5.4.2.3. A Postcolonial Reading of Luke 8:43-48	216
5.5. Miracles of Restitution, the Right of the Social Outcaste	218-224
5.5.1. The Leper Cured (5:12-13)	218
5.5.1.1. Locating the Text	218
5.5.1.2. Conventional Understandings of the Leper Cured	219
5.5.1.3. A Postcolonial Reading of Luke 5:12-13 Inclusion of the Excluded	222
5.6. Miracles of Confrontation the Socio-Economic Disparity	224-225
5.7. The Cure of a Blind Man (18:35-43)	225-231
5.7.1. Locating the Text	225
5.7.1.1. Conventional Understandings of the Blind Man Cured	226
5.7.1.2. Ancient Traditions about Blindness	226
5.7.1.3. A Postcolonial Reading of Luke 18:35-43	228
Summary	231-233

Chapter 6

Revolutionary Motifs of the Miracle Stories in the Gospel of Luke

6.1. Revolutionary Motif of the Lukan Miracle Stories	235-245
6.1.1. Revolutionary Motif as a Transformation of Power Structures	236
6.1.1.1. Defeating Imperialism and Suppressive Power	236
6.1.1.2. Alternate Socio-Economic Life	239
6.1.1.3. Reversal of Status and Dignity	241
6.1.1.4. Nonviolent Resistance to Inhuman Control	242
6.1.1.5. Inclusive and Embracing Community	244
6.1.2. Revolutionary Motif as a Holistic Healing	245

6.1.2.1. Solidarity and Option for the Poor and the Marginalized	245
6.1.2.2. Battle Against Corruption	247
6.1.2.3. Eliminating of Otherness	249
6.1.3. Revolutionary Motif as a Confronting for Justice	251
6.1.3.1. Restoring the Newness of Life	252
6.1.3.2. Exposing Injustice and Suffering for Just	252
6.1.3.3. Advocating for the Oppressed	253
6.2. Some Challenges of Churches in India	254-261
6.2.1. Reality of Globalisation	254
6.2.2. Hegemonic Forces Against Gender	256
6.2.3. Exploitation of Indigenous People	257
6.2.4. Rampant Corruption	258
6.2.5. Increasing Poverty	260
6.3. Relevance of Lukan Miracle Stories for Churches' Action Today	261-266
Conclusion	267-270
Bibliography	271-297