

Contents

|  |      |
|--|------|
| Foreword  | xi   |
| Abbreviation  | xiii |
| Chapter 1: General Introduction   | 1    |
| 1.1. The Socio-Economic Crisis of the Post-exilic Period   | 3    |
| 1.2. The Political Crisis in the Post-exilic Period  | 4    |
| 1.3. The External and Internal Oppression  | 6    |
| 1.4. The Meaning of Torah  | 7    |
| 1.5. The Usage of the Term Wisdom  | 9    |
| 1.6. Social Scientific Reading   | 11   |
| 1.7. The Liberative Reading  | 15   |
| Chapter 2: The History of Collection and the Stages of Development of Wisdom in the Context of the Book of Proverbs | 19   |
| Introduction   | 19   |
| 2.1. The History of Collection   | 19   |
| 2.1.1. The Collection of Writings in the Monarchic Period  | 20   |
| 2.1.2. The Stages of Collection and Addition   | 22   |
| 2.2. History of Different Social Milieu of Wisdom  | 25   |
| 2.2.1. Clan and Folk Wisdom  | 28   |
| 2.2.2. Family  | 30   |
| 2.2.3. The Scribal School  | 33   |
| 2.2.4. The Royal Court   | 38   |
| 2.3. Assumptions on the Development of Wisdom Tradition  | 39   |
| 2.3.1. Torah-Centered Wisdom   | 40   |
| 2.3.2. Wisdom and Spirit   | 43   |

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| 2.3.3. Wisdom in the Apocalyptic Literature   | 45        |
| 2.3.4. The Qumranian Wisdom Tradition   | 46        |
| 2.4. Literary Work and the Theological Conflict   | 48        |
| 2.4.1. Literary Work of Wisdom Genre  | 48        |
| 2.4.2. The Theological Construct of Torah and Wisdom  | 50        |
| 2.4.3. Conflicting Theological Ideologies   | 52        |
| Summary   | 56        |
| Chapter 3: The Significance of Law in Ancient West AsianWisdom Instruction and Its Relationshipwith the Book of Proverbs | 57 |
| Introduction  | 57        |
| 3.1. Ancient West Asian Wisdom and the Book of Proverbs   | 58        |
| 3.1.1. The Nature of Egyptian Sapiential Texts  | 58        |
| 3.1.2. Ma'at as Central Concept of Wisdom and Law   | 60        |
| 3.2. The Similarity of Ancient West Asian Wisdom Instructionand Proverbs  | 63        |
| 3.2.1. Instruction of Vizier Ptah-Hotep   | 63        |
| 3.2.2. Instruction of King Meri-kare  | 64        |
| 3.2.3. The Protest of the Eloquent Peasant  | 65        |
| 3.2.4. Instruction of King Amenemhet  | 67        |
| 3.2.5. Instruction of Amenemope   | 67        |
| 3.2.6. The Counsel of Wisdom  | 70        |
| 3.3. Relationship of Law and Wisdom Instruction in AWA  | 71        |
| 3.3.1. The Code of Ur-Nammu   | 71        |
| 3.3.2. Ugaritic Text  | 72        |
| 3.3.3. Law of Eshnunna  | 73        |
| 3.3.4. The Code of Hammurabi  | 74        |
| 3.4. Uniqueness of Israel Wisdom Instructionin the Book of Proverbs   | 76        |
| 3.4.1. The Reconstruction of the Concept of Wisdomin the Post-exilic Period   | 77        |
| 3.4.2. Monotheistic Israel  | 78        |
| 3.4.3. Acknowledgement of Mother's Instruction  | 78        |
| 3.4.4. The Personification of Wisdom and Folly  | 79        |
| 3.4.5. The Symbolic Presentation Concerning the'Way' and 'Life'   | 79        |
| 3.4.6. The Protection of the Stranger or Foreigneris Silence in Proverbs  | 80        |
| Summary   | 80        |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Chapter 4: The Theological Significance of the Torah and Wisdom in the Post-Exilic Period | 81  |
| Introduction   | 81  |
| 4.1. The Diverse Opinions on the Function of the Torah   | 82  |
| 4.1.1. The Deuteronomic Presentation of Torah  | 83  |
| 4.1.2. The Concept of Torah as Law   | 86  |
| 4.1.3. The Usage of Wisdom and Torah in Prophetic Speech   | 88  |
| 4.1.4. The Function of Torah in Proverbs   | 91  |
| 4.1.5. Ezra and Torah  | 93  |
| 4.2. The Socio-Economic and Political Association of Law in the Persian Period                   | 95  |
| 4.2.1. The Socio-Religious Association of Law  | 96  |
| 4.2.2. The Political Strategy of the Persian Empire  | 98  |
| 4.2.3. The Socio-Economic Issues   | 99  |
| 4.3. Symbols and Concepts of Torah   | 101 |
| 4.3.1. The Concept of Honour and Shame   | 102 |
| 4.3.2. The Concept of Piety in Wisdom  | 105 |
| 4.3.3. The Notion of Retributive Justice   | 107 |
| 4.3.4. The Concept of Monotheism   | 110 |
| 4.4. The Relationship of Deuteronomy and Proverbs: A Quest for Liberative Reading                | 112 |
| 4.4.1. The Usage of Parallel Terminology in Deuteronomy and Proverbs                             | 113 |
| 4.4.2. Law and Wisdom in Didactic Instruction  | 114 |
| 4.4.3. The Quest for a Liberative Reading of Torah   | 116 |
| Summary  | 117 |
| Chapter 5: The Vitality of Wisdom Instruction in the Book of Proverbs                     | 119 |
| Introduction   | 119 |
| 5.1. The Motif of Wisdom Instructional Discourse   | 120 |
| 5.1.1. Wisdom Instruction as a Quest for Justice 1:2-4   | 120 |
| 5.1.1.1. Instruction Communicates the Value of Wisdom  | 122 |
| 5.1.1.2. Wisdom Inspires to Uphold Righteousness and Justice                                     | 124 |
| 5.1.1.3. Wisdom is Offered to the Simple   | 126 |
| 5.1.2. The Origin of Wisdom in the Phrase the Fear of the Lord 1:7                               | 129 |
| 5.1.2.1. The fear of the Lord as Torah Wisdom  | 129 |
| 5.1.2.2. The Fear of the Lord as Torah-Values  | 130 |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| 5.2. Concepts and Metaphors of Instruction  | 133        |
| 5.2.1. Instructions and Warnings 1:8-11   | 133        |
| 5.2.1.1 The Significance of Parental Instruction  | 134        |
| 5.2.1.2. Honour is Manifested as Garland and Pendants                                   | 135        |
| 5.2.1.3. Warning about Temptation   | 135        |
| 5.2.1.4. Warning in Relation to Killing   | 136        |
| 5.2.2. Instruction on the Concept of 'Way' 4:10-14                                      | 137        |
| 5.2.2.1. The Concept of Long Life   | 138        |
| 5.2.2.2. The Concept of the Two Ways  | 139        |
| 5.2.2.3. The Metaphor of Walking and Running  | 141        |
| 5.2.2.4. The Concept of Holding and Guardingthe Instruction                         | 142        |
| 5.2.2.5. Prohibition on Walking the Path of the Wicked                                  | 142        |
| 5.2.3. The Symbolic Depictions of Human Body inthe Instructional Discourse 6:16-19  | 144        |
| 5.2.3.1. The Six and Seven Numerical Saying   | 145        |
| 5.2.3.2. The Arrogant Eyes and the Lying Tongue   | 146        |
| 5.2.3.3. A Symbolic Presentation of Heart and Feet                                      | 146        |
| 5.2.3.4. A Lying Witness who Creates Discord in the Family                              | 146        |
| 5.2.4. The Description of Wisdom-Torah Instruction 6:20-24                              | 149        |
| 5.2.4.1. Instruction Concerning the Commandment   | 149        |
| 5.2.4.2. To Bind and to Tie   | 150        |
| 5.2.4.3. Torah as the Guardian of the Keeper  | 151        |
| 5.2.4.4. The Commandment as Lamp and the Torah as Light                                 | 151        |
| 5.2.4.5. Protection from the Adulterous Woman   | 152        |
| Summary   | 155        |
| Chapter 6: Instruction on Wealth and Poverty of the Righteousand the Wicked | 157 |
| Introduction  | 157        |
| 6.1. The Collection of Sayings on Wealth and Poverty Prov. 10:22-16                     | 158        |
| 6.1.1. The Comparison of the Rich and the Poor 10:15-17                                 | 159        |
| 6.1.1.1. The Advantaged Rich and the Disadvantaged Poor                                 | 160        |
| 6.1.1.2. Description on the Earning of the Righteousand the Wicked                  | 162        |
| 6.1.1.3. Assurance of Life to the Righteous   | 163        |
| 6.1.2. Instruction Concerning Inheritance and Injustice 13:22-23                        | 164        |
| 6.1.2.1. The Inheritance of the Righteous   | 165        |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 6.1.2.2. The Unjust Deeds of the Wicked   | 165 |
| 6.1.3. The Description of Honour as Oppose to the Actof the Oppressor 14:31-32                          | 168 |
| 6.1.3.1. Oppressing the Poor as Contrast to Honour  | 169 |
| 6.1.3.2. The Evil Deeds as Contrast to Righteousness  | 170 |
| 6.1.4. The Consequences of Evil Plans and Greediness 15:25-27   | 171 |
| 6.1.4.1. The House of the Haughty andthe Widow's Property   | 172 |
| 6.1.4.2. Evil Plans as Contrary to Pleasant Words   | 174 |
| 6.1.4.3. The Act of Greediness Leads to Shame   | 174 |
| 6.2. The Description of the Righteous-Poor and theFoolish-Wicked and its Related Actions                | 175 |
| 6.2.1. The Imagery of the Poor and the Folly 19:1-4   | 176 |
| 6.2.1.1. Description of the Crooked Speech of the Fool  | 177 |
| 6.2.1.2. Desire Without Knowledge is Foolishness  | 179 |
| 6.2.1.3. Foolishness Leads to Ruin  | 179 |
| 6.2.1.4. The Deceptive Power of Wealthin Social Relationship  | 180 |
| 6.2.2. Bribes Thwart from Hearing the Cry of the Poor 21:13-14  | 182 |
| 6.2.2.1. Saying on Negligence to the Cry of the Poor  | 182 |
| 6.2.2.2. Bribes Provoke Anger and Wrath   | 184 |
| 6.2.3. The Rich Rules Over the Poor Borrower 22:7-9   | 185 |
| 6.2.3.1. The Hegemony of the Rich Over the Poor   | 185 |
| 6.2.3.2. Injustice and Its Consequences   | 187 |
| 6.2.3.3. Generosity to the Poor in the Context of Debt  | 187 |
| 6.2.4. Saying on Oppression and Poverty 22:16   | 189 |
| 6.2.4.1. Oppressing the Poor and Giving to the Rich   | 190 |
| 6.2.4.2. The Wicked as the Oppressor of the Poor  | 191 |
| Summary   | 192 |
| Chapter 7: Instruction on Protection of the Disadvantaged    in the Context of Oppressive Ruler | 195 |
| Introduction  | 195 |
| 7.1. Protection of the Disadvantaged in theProverbial Collection 22:17-30                               | 196 |
| 7.1.1. Warnings on Robbing the Disadvantaged Poor 22:22-23  | 197 |
| 7.1.1.1. Warning Concerning Robbing the Poor  | 198 |
| 7.1.1.2. Yahweh as the Defender of the Poor   | 201 |
| 7.1.2. Warnings on Removing the Ancient Landmark 23:10-11   | 202 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 7.1.2.1. Prohibition of Removing the Landmarkof the Orphan                      | 203 |
| 7.1.2.2. God as the Redeemer of the Orphans   | 206 |
| 7.1.3. Torah Instruction in the Context of Oppression 28:3-6                        | 207 |
| 7.1.3.1. The Powerful Poor (שָׁרֵף) and theOppressed Poor (לָרֵף)               | 208 |
| 7.1.3.2. The Wicked is Praised by the Onewho Forsakes the Torah                 | 210 |
| 7.1.3.3. Justice as Foolishness to the Wicked                                       | 210 |
| 7.1.3.4. The Wise-Poor as Contrast to the Wicked-Rich                               | 211 |
| 7.1.4. Exhortation and Warning Concerning the Poor 28:27                            | 213 |
| 7.1.4.1. Exhortation on Giving to the Poor  | 213 |
| 7.1.4.2. Warning to the One who Ignoresthe Needs of the Poor                    | 214 |
| 7.2. Justice to the Poor in the Context of the Oppressive Ruler                     | 215 |
| 7.2.1. The Description of the Poor and the Oppressor 29:13-14                       | 216 |
| 7.2.1.1. The Commonality of the Poor and the Oppressor                              | 216 |
| 7.2.1.2. The Throne is Established if Justice Reigns                                | 217 |
| 7.2.2. A Symbolic Presentation on the Character ofthe Oppressive Ruler 30:13-14 | 220 |
| 7.2.2.1. A Symbolic Description of Pride  | 220 |
| 7.2.2.2. A Figurative Presentation of Power   | 222 |
| Summary   | 223 |
| Chapter 8: General Conclusion  | 225 |
| Bibliography   | 237 |