Contents

Preface ix

Unit One: An Introduction 1

a. Title (Hebrew and English Titles) 1

b. Authorship, Sources, and Traditions (It should cover traditional view, Old Documentary, Fragmentary, Supplementary, and New Documentary Hypothesis) 3

c. Scholarly Engagements Regarding the Pentateuch and Ancient West Asian Literature 8

Unit Two: Genesis 25

a. The Primeval History (Genesis 1-11) 25

The Creation Account, The Story of the Fall, The Flood Story, The Story of the Tower of Babel and the Confusion of the Language

b. The Ancestral History (Genesis 12-50) 46
The Call and Covenant of Abraham: Individual/Community to all nations, Abram and Sarah in Egypt, Abram and Lot Narrative, Hagar, the Slave, Isaac and Ishmael Story, Esau and Jacob Story

c. Primeval and Ancestral Saga: Critical Assessment 62
(Claus Westermann, Chris Wright, Gerhard von Rad, Walter Kaiser Jr., and other scholars)

d. Scholarly Engagements on Creation Account against the Colonial Meta-narratives of Ancient West Asia 64

Unit Three: Exodus 71

a. Exodus Event: A Paradigm for People Movement 71 (Divine-Human Partnership Towards Liberation;
The alternative vision of God as the Co-Sufferer and Co-traveller)

b. God, People and Ethics (The Alternative Ethics of Manna Economy: God's Economy of Sharing, Sufficiency, and Sustainability) 83

c. Law and Narrative in Exodus: Focussing on the Intersection of Legal Material (Exodus 20:22-23:19) and Inclusive Community (The Alternative Vision of a Community - Community of the People of God welcoming the poor, widow, parentless, and the aliens) 84

d. Tabernacle: Covenant God and Covenant Community (Towards Peace, Justice, and Reconciliation) 86

e. Scholarly Engagements on Exodus Event and Book of the Covenant Codes (Sociological, Subaltern, Feminist/Womanist, Postcolonial, and other Contextual readings) 87

Unit Four: Leviticus 107

a. The Ethical Requirement for the Covenant Community 107

b. Towards Holiness by the Priests and the People 107

c. The Holiness Code 109

Unit Five: Numbers 119

a. Socio-political and Religious Context During the Wilderness 119

b. Census and Exploring the Land of Canaan (Numbers 1, 13-14, and 26) 120

c. Zelophehad's Daughters and Inheritance Rights (Numbers 27 and 36) 121

d. Yahweh as a God who Struggles and Journeys Along with the People 122

Unit Six: Deuteronomy 123

a. Shema (Deuteronomy 6) 123

b. Ancient Creedal Statement of Faith (Deuteronomy 26:5-11) 124

c. Deuteronomic Code (Deuteronomy 12-26) 125

Unit Seven: The Pentateuch and the Development of Israelite Religion 133

a. God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in Genesis and Yahweh in Exodus 6 133

b. Scholarly Engagements (Albrecht Alt, Frank Moore Cross, Gordon Wenham, and Others) 134

Unit Eight: The Theology of the Pentateuch (Exploring Theological Themes and Ideas) 137

a. Creation, Ecology, and Human Responsibility (Genesis 1-2) 137

b. Election and Covenant 138

c. Gender Roles and Man-woman Relationships in the Creation Account, Ancestral 139

d. The Space for 'Others' in the Pentateuch 139

e. Law, Land, and Gender: Eco-Gender Spirituality (Biblical Law Codes and Other Passages) 139

Unit Nine: The Pentateuch and the Formation of the Israelite Identity (Role of the Pentateuch in Shaping the Covenant Community's Self-understanding) 143

a. Israelite: Ethnic Group or People of God 143

b. Symbiotic Relationship between Covenant God, Covenant People, and Covenant Land (Genesis-Deuteronomy) 146

Unit Ten: Exegetical Study of Selected Texts 149

English/Regional
Genesis 1:1-18; 1:26-2:3; 12:1-8
Exodus 1:8-22; 3:1-8
Leviticus 18:1-10
Numbers 12:1-15
Deuteronomy 6:1-11; 26:1-10

OR

Hebrew

Genesis 1:1-18; 1:26-2:3; 12:1-8
Exodus 1:8-22; 3:1-8
Leviticus 18:1-10
Numbers 12:1-15
Deuteronomy 6:1-11; 26:1-10

Bibliography 183