

Contents

Foreword	ix
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgements	xv
Introduction	xvii
1. Shifting Centres: Geographical and Demographical Dynamics in Contemporary Christian Mission and Evangelism	1
2. From the Post-Christian: West to Post-Western Christianity Implications for Mission and Evangelism	15
3. The Church of the Poor and Powerless: A New Paradigm for Christian Mission and Evangelism	27
4. Borderless Christianity: A Missiological Study of “Churchless Christianity”	38
5. Home-Based Faith: Missiological Reflections on the Rise of House Churches	52
6. Mega Churches and Mission Today: Trends, Challenges, Global Impacts and Missiological Reflections	63
7. Virtual Pulpits and Real Impacts: Understanding Tele-Evangelism in the 21 st Century	75
8. From Missio Dei to Holistic Mission: Paradigm Shifts in Contemporary Christian Mission and Evangelism	86
9. Deductive and Inductive Approaches to the Use of the Bible in Mission: Paradigm Shifts in Thinking and Practice	101
10. From Church-Centred to World-Centred Mission: Paradigm Shifts from Institutional Focus to Global Engagement in Christian Mission	111
11. From Saving Souls to Renewing Creation: Paradigm Shifts from Individual Salvation to the Salvation of All Creation	125

12. Contextual Theologies and their Approaches to Mission: From Traditional to Culturally Relevant Models	137
13. The Incarnation and the Self-Emptying Christ: Towards a Kenotic Model of Mission	155
14. Mission as Contextual Engagement: Understanding and Identifying with Local Cultures in Mission	170
15. Mission in a World of Worldviews: Engaging Biblical, Missionary's, and Local Worldviews in Christian Mission	185
16. Indigenization in Mission: Christian Witness through the Indigenous Gospel and the Formation of Indigenous Churches	199
17. Contextualization in Mission: Building Culturally Relevant and Sustainable Model of Mission	215
18. Inculturation in Mission: Pathway to the Formation of Local Church	230
19. New Community in Jesus: Self-Support, Self-Propagation, and Self-Governance in the Formation of Local Churches	247
20. Religious Pluralism and Christian Mission: Challenges and Opportunities for Witness in a Multi-Faith World	259
21. Cultural Pluralism and Christian Mission: Contextual and Transformative Witness in Diverse Societies	274
22. Ideological Pluralism and Christian Mission: Witnessing to Truth in a Relativistic World	283
23. Inter-faith Dialogue and Christian Mission: Breaking Barriers, Bridging Faiths, Bearing Witness, and Bringing Hope	297
24. Comprehensive Dialogue and Christian Mission: Engaging the Whole World in God's Mission	309
25. Poverty and Christian Mission: Rethinking Mission in the Context of Economic Marginality	323
26. Creation Keeping and Christian Mission: Engaging Creation in God's Redemptive Work	336
27. Mission and the Emancipation of Women: Transforming Gender Dynamics in Christian Ministry	348
28. The Market, the Sacred, and Christian Witness: Christian Mission in the Era of Market Religiosity and Where God Becomes a Commodity	361
29. Christian Mission in Fluid Spaces: Mission Movements Outside and Beyond Established Churches	372

30. Result-Oriented Mission in the Era of Globalization: Numerical Growth and Christianization in a Global Context 386
31. Proselytization and Missiological Ethics: Denominationalism, Conversion, and Global Witness 397
32. Fundamentalism and Christian Mission: The Gospel in the Grip of Absolutes 412
33. Mission to Nominal Christians: Evangelism among Passive Believers 425
34. Mission as Christian Presence: A Transformative Paradigm of Mission in a Fragmented World 440
35. The New Evangelization: Renewal and Mission in the Contemporary Catholic Church 451
36. Mission as an Extension of Hospitality: Hospitality as a Paradigm for Contemporary Christian Mission 465
37. Mission as Common Witness: Reimagining Evangelism in the 21st Century 479
38. Mission as Reconciliation and Healing: Renewing the Church's Witness in Contemporary Contexts 489
39. Mission as a Quest for Justice and Peace: Participating in the Missio Dei for a Reconciled Creation 503
40. Mission as Action in Hope: Living the Resurrection Between Cross and Kingdom 519