

Contents

Forward	xv
Acknowledgement	xvii
List of Figures and Tables	xix
List of Abbreviations	xxi
Glossary	xxiii
Introduction	xxvii
Chapter 1: Concept and Understanding of Family in Pauline Perspective	1
1. Introduction	1
1.1. Family in the Old Testament	1
1.2. Gender (Male/female) Issues	2
1.3. Family in Judaism	4
2. Family in Greco-Roman World	5
2.1. Greek World	5
2.2. Roman World	7
3. Family in New Testament Apart from Paul	9
3.1. Jesus' Attitude towards Family	9
3.1.1. The Earthly or Biological Perspective	10
3.1.2. The Heavenly/Celestial Perspective	10
3.2. The Attitude of the Disciples on Family	11
3.2.1. Peter's Understandings of Family	12
3.3. Women as Weaker Vessels	12
4. Family in Pauline's Writings	12
4.1. Family in the Epistle of Romans	13
4.1.1. The Great Family	13

4.2.	The Human Family (Human Ancestry)	16
4.2.1.	The Human Ancestor	16
4.2.2.	The Family of Faith	16
4.2.3.	The Law of Marriage	17
4.3.	The Ideal Family	17
4.3.1.	Metaphor of Labor Pain	19
5.	Family in the Epistle of Corinthians	19
5.1.	Paul's Family Imagery in the Form of Various Female Allegories and Metaphors in his Theological Articulations	19
5.1.1.	Nuptial Imagery	20
5.1.2.	The Bride	20
5.1.3.	Maternal Imagery	20
5.2.	Some Family Allegories	21
5.2.1.	Faithful Servants	21
5.2.2.	Imagery of Children	21
5.3.	Paul's View on Marriage, Celibacy, and Divorce	21
5.3.1.	Marriage	22
5.4.	Celibacy as Choice	22
5.5.	Paul's Instruction on the Issue of Divorce	23
5.5.1.	The Unbelieving and Unwilling Spouse Can Leave	24
5.5.2.	Can Live with Unbelieving Spouse if they Will	24
5.5.3.	Instruction for Slave	25
5.5.4.	Instruction for Remarriage	25
5.6.	Christ the Head of Man and Man the Head of a Woman	26
6.	Book of Galatians	26
6.1.	No Racial Distinction and Superiority	26
6.1.1.	No Status Distinction and Superiority	27
6.1.2.	No Gender Distinction and Superiority	27
7.	Family in the Letter to Ephesians	27
7.1.	Pauline's Perspective of Family	27
7.2.	Paul Compares the Family	29
7.2.1.	Parents and Children	30
7.2.2.	Masters and Slaves	30

8. Book of Philippians	30
8.1. Suffering	31
8.2. Unity	31
8.3. Humility and Submission/Obedience	32
9. Book of Colossians	32
9.1. Living as Those Made Alive in Christ	32
9.1.1. Life has One Basic Profession	32
9.1.2. Life has One Essential Relationship	33
9.1.3. Life has Two Levels of Spiritual Maturity	34
9.1.4. Life has Two Basic Spiritual Needs	35
9.2. Putting off the Old Lifestyle	35
9.2.1. Right Conduct in Christian Households	37
9.2.2. Instructions for Christian Households	37
10. Book of 1 st & 2 nd Thessalonians	38
10.1. Sanctification Means Avoiding Sexual Immorality	39
10.1.1. Sanctification Means that a Person Knows how to Control his Body and his Spouse	39
10.1.2. Family Peace	40
10.1.3. Sanctification Means Resisting the Passion of Lust	40
10.2. There are Four Reasons to Live Pure Lives	42
10.2.1. Immorality Defrauds and Cheats a Brother	42
10.2.2. Immorality Shall be Avenged by God	42
10.2.3. Immorality is Not God's Call; Holiness Is	43
10.2.4. Immorality is a Sin against God	44
11. Book of Timothy	44
11.1. In Public, Women are to Dress Modestly	45
11.2. The Christian Woman is to Dress with Good Works or Deeds	46
11.3. Women in the Church	47
11.4. Woman's Role in the Church	47
11.5. Women in the Society and at Home	49
11.6. Widows, Elders, and Slaves	50
11.6.1. Widows	51

11.6.2. The Obligation of the Church to Instruct Younger Widows to Remarry	51
12. Book of Titus	52
12.1. Older Man	52
12.2. Older Women	53
12.3. Younger Women	53
12.4. Younger Men	53
12.5. Slaves	54
13. Book of Philemon	55
13.1. The Runaway Slave	56
13.2. An Appeal Rather than Command	57
13.3. The Problem of Slave	57
13.4. Onesimus New Birth	58
14. Conclusion	58
Chapter 2: The Concept of Family as a Social Unit, Patterns, and Changes	59
1. Introduction	59
1.1. Elements or Components of Family	60
1.2. Definition	60
2. Old Testament had Four Major Terms Related to Family	61
2.1. Gender or Sex Components in Family	61
2.2. Patriarchy and its Asymmetry in Family	62
3. Concepts: Sociological Theories and Family Varieties	64
3.1. Modernist	65
3.1.1. Functionalist	65
3.1.2. The Conservative New Right	67
3.2. Postmodernist	68
3.2.1. The Ideas of Individual Postmodern Thinker	69
3.2.2. The Emergence of View on Gender Equality and Individualism	74
4. Changing Family Patterns Effects Social Change	77
4.1. Changes to Marriage	78
4.2. Interpreting Changes in the Family	79
4.2.1. Optimistic Interpretation of Changes	80
4.3. The Impact of Postmodernist Advocacy on ‘Freedom of Choice	80

4.3.1. Causes of Why Family Breaks Downs	81
4.3.2. Explanations for the Rise of Divorce	81
5. Feminist Arguments	83
5.1. The Impact of the Decline of Marriage	84
5.2. Controversies Over Single Parent	87
5.2.1. The Survival of Nuclear Family and Family Diversities	89
5.2.2. Family Stability	91
6. Conclusion	91
Chapter 3: Family Pattern of Yimkhiung Community in North East India (A Tribal Community)	93
1. Introduction	93
1.1. Geographical Features	94
1.2. Origin	95
1.3. Early Settlements	95
1.3.1. Proper Location	96
1.3.2. Water Availability	96
1.3.3. Security and Safety	96
1.3.4. Fertility of the Soil	96
1.3.5. Resources of the Place	96
1.4. Process of Settlement in New Villages	97
1.4.1. They Choose a Small Tree	97
1.4.2. After Confirming the Positive Indication	97
1.4.3. The Team Carries Domestic Animals with them	97
1.4.4. During the Process of Building a Morung	98
1.4.5. After Few Days of Settlement	98
1.4.6. After Completion of the Celebration	98
1.5. Occupation and Live Stock	98
1.6. House and Shelter	99
1.7. Lights and Lamps	100
2. Family Patterns in Yimkhiung Tribe	100
3. Socio-Demographic Details and Respondents Profile	101
3.1. The Diaspora of Yimkhiung People	102
3.2. Occupation	102
3.3. Education	102

4. The Following are the Family Patterns and Types in Yimkhiung Community	103
4.1. Nuclear Family	103
4.2. Extended Family	103
4.3. Childless Families	103
4.4. Step Family	104
4.5. Grandparent's Family	104
4.6. Single Parent Family	104
4.7. Foster Family	105
4.8. The Types of Families in Yimkhiung Communities	106
5. Various Approaches to the Study of Yimkhiung Families	107
5.1. Functional/Structural Approach	107
5.2. Social System in Yimkhiung Context	107
5.2.1. Economic Functions	107
5.2.2. Transmission of Status	108
5.2.3. Socialization	109
5.3. Transactional Approach	109
5.4. Family System Approach (FSA)	111
5.4.1. Marriage System	112
5.5. Psycho-Analytic Approach	112
5.6. Integrative Approach	113
5.6.1. Physical and Sizes of Family	114
5.6.2. Social Aspect of Family	114
5.7. Developmental Approach	124
5.7.1. Matrimony	125
5.7.2. Issues in Marriage	128
6. Changing Patterns of Marriage	131
6.1. Comparatively Few People Get Married	131
6.2. Working Woman	132
6.3. Early Marriage is Replaced by Late Marriage	132
6.4. Celibacy Rate Increase	133
6.5. Divorce Rate is Slowly Growing	134
6.6. Changing Patterns of Child Birth	134
6.7. There are Late Marriages in the Locality	134
7. Transition of Occupation and Career	135
7.1. Change of Cultures and Praxis	137

7.2. Gradual Lost of Identity	139
7.3. Language Disruption	140
7.4. Diminishing Indigenous Language	142
7.5. Migration as Domestic Helper	143
7.6. Migration without Proper Occupation	143
7.7. Diminishing Occupational Prominence	143
8. Conclusion	145
Chapter 4: Pastoral Care and Ministerial Response to the Issues in Pauline Perspective	147
1. Introduction	147
2. The Bilateral Aspect of Life	147
2.1. The Spiritual Aspect (Religious Beliefs and Faith)	148
2.2. Animism to Christianity	148
2.3. The Physical Aspects (Social Settings)	150
2.3.1. Issues in Marriage System	150
2.3.2. Display of Wealth	151
2.3.3. Display of Status and Prestige	151
3. Marriage Outside of the Church Ordinances	151
3.1. Same Clan Marriage	151
3.2. Same-Sex Marriage	151
3.3. Elope	152
4. Divorced	152
5. Working Women	152
6. Celibacy	152
7. Late Marriage	152
8. Decline of Marriage Rate among the Marriageable Age Group	153
9. Scriptural Instruction for Marriage in Pauline Perspective	153
9.1. Marriage is an Honour among All	153
9.2. To be Holy is the will of God	153
9.3. Sexual Sin is against One's Own Body	154
9.4. Law of Marriage	154
10. Social Living and Peaceful Co-existence	155
11. Response to Change of Cultures and Praxis	157
11.1. Economic Development	157
11.2. Raising the Living Standard	157

11.3. Promoting Peaceful Co-existence	158
11.4. Freedom to Explore and Migrate	158
12. Educational Culture	159
13. Language Disruption and Diminishing Indigenous Language	160
14. Migration as Domestic Helper	161
15. Migration Without Proper Occupation	162
16. Diminishing Occupational Prominence	163
17. Concluding Remark	163
18. General Conclusion	163
18.1. Pauline's Concept of Family in Summary	164
18.1.1. Law of Marriage	164
18.1.2. Christ the Head of Man	164
18.1.3. Man, the Head of a Woman	164
18.1.4. Peaceful Co-existence	164
18.2. Role of Husband and Wife as a Family	164
19. The Relevance of Pauline Concept in Modern Context with Reference to Yimkhiung Community	165
19.1. Relevance of Law	165
19.2. Christ as Head in Yimkhiung Family	165
19.3. Man as Head of Family	165
19.4. Co-existence	165
19.5. Role of Husband and Wife in Yimkhiung Community	166
20. How and why is Family Pattern Changing?	166
20.1. Divorce no Longer as Strange	166
20.2. Some Chose to Stay Single and Adopt Children	166
20.3. Late Marriages	166
20.4. Changing Patterns of Child Birth	167
21. What are the Factors Responsible for the Change	167
21.1. Modernism	167
21.2. Cross-Cultural Context	167
21.3. Feminist Empowerment	168
22. Are the Changes Favorable or Unfavorable?	168
Bibliography	171