

Contents

Acknowledgements	xi
Preface	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
General Introduction	xxi
Delimitation	xxii
Presuppositions	xxii
Status Quaestionis	xxiv
Originality of the Study and Statement of Arguments	xxvi
Method of Research	xxvii
Structure of this Book	xxviii
Part 1: Preparing to Interpret the Ethical Emphases in Acts 20:32–35	1
Chapter 1: The Ethical Emphases of Ancient Farewell Speeches:	3
A Contextual Study	3
1.1. The Importance of a Contextual Study	3
1.2. The Greco-Roman Context of Speeches	5
1.2.1. The Classical Oratory	5
1.2.2. Rhetorical Speeches	6
1.2.2.1. Parts of a Rhetorical Speech	7
1.2.2.2. Pathos and Ethos in Rhetorical Persuasion	8
1.2.2.3. The Genres of Greco-Roman Rhetorical Speeches	8
1.2.2.3.1. Forensic Speeches	9
1.2.2.3.2. Epideictic Speeches	10
1.2.2.3.3. Deliberative Speeches	11
1.2.3. Genres and Ethics	12
1.2.4. Ethics in Greco-Roman Farewell Speeches	13
1.2.4.1. Homer, Illiad 6	14

1.2.4.2.	Xenophon, Cyrus 8.7.6–28	15
1.2.4.3.	Plato, Phaedo	15
1.2.4.4.	Josephus, Jewish Antiquities. 12.6.3 (Mattathias)	15
1.2.4.5.	Plutarch, Otho 15	16
1.2.4.6.	Diogenes Laertius, Epicurus 10.16–18	17
1.3.	Old Testament Background of Farewell Speeches	17
1.3.1.	1 Samuel 12:1–25	20
1.3.2.	Tobit 14:3–11	21
1.3.3.	Genesis 47:29–49:33	23
1.3.4.	Deuteronomy 31–33	24
1.3.5.	Joshua 23	24
1.3.6.	1 Kings 2:1–10	25
1.3.7.	1 Mac 2:49–70	26
1.4.	Drawing a Comparison between Miletus Speech and Ancient Speeches	27
1.4.1.	Xenophon 8.7.6–28 (Cyrus' Farewell Speech) and Miletus Speech	27
1.4.2.	Homer, Illiad 6 (Hector's Farewell Speech to Andromache) and Miletus Speech	28
1.4.3.	Samuel's Farewell Speech and Miletus Speech	28
1.4.4.	Tobit's Farewell Speech and Miletus Speech	29
1.5.	Concluding Remarks	30
Chapter 2:	An Overview of the Pauline Speeches in Acts	31
2.1.	Preliminary Observations	31
2.2.	Some Important Features of Pauline Speeches in Acts	32
2.3.	The Function of Pauline Speeches within the Narrative of Acts	35
2.3.1.	An Overview of the Major Pauline Speeches	36
2.3.2.	The Apologetic Function of Pauline Speeches	40
2.3.3.	The Deliberative Function of the Pauline Speeches	43
2.4.	The Miletus Speech of Paul within the Pauline Speeches	44
2.4.1.	The Narrative Context of the Miletus Speech	44
2.4.2.	The Nature of the Miletus Speech	44
2.4.3.	The Ethical Character of the Miletus Speech	45
Part 2:	The Ethical Emphases of the Miletus Speech: An Investigation into Acts 20:32–35	49
Chapter 3:	Grace: A Gift Fundamental to Ethical Life	51
3.1.	Preliminary Analysis of 20:32	51

3.2.	The χάρις Motif	54
3.2.1.	χάρις in Luke-Acts	57
3.2.2.	χάρις in Paul	58
3.3.	Grace as Power	60
3.3.1.	Grace as Power in Luke-Acts	61
3.3.2.	Grace as Power in the Pauline Letters	62
3.4.	The “Operative Grace”	63
3.5.	Grace: Affinity of Luke and Paul	64
3.6.	Grace: The Requisite for Ethics and Morality	66
Chapter 4:	Acts 20:33: Ethics of “Pure Intention”	69
4.1.	Preliminary Observations of 20:33	69
4.1.1.	The Objects of Greed in 20:33	71
4.2.	Meaning and Attestation of “Greed” in the Scripture	72
4.2.1.	ἐπιθυμία/, ἐπιθυμέω—Meaning	72
4.2.2.	Usage of ἐπιθυμία/, ἐπιθυμέω in the LXX and Its Equivalent in the Hebrew Bible	73
4.2.3.	The Use of ἐπιθυμία / ἐπιθυμέω in the NT	74
4.3.	The Dangers of ἐπιθυμία / πλεονεξία in Luke-Acts	74
4.3.1.	Greed Illustrated: Parables on Greed	75
4.3.2.	Greed Condemned: Anecdotes on Greed	77
4.4.	Condemnation of ἐπιθυμία / πλεονεξία in Paul	79
4.4.1.	Rom 7:7: οὐκ ἐπιθυμήσεις	79
4.4.1.1.	Old Testament Background for οὐκ ἐπιθυμήσεις in Paul	80
4.5.	Desire: Action or Intention?	85
Chapter 5:	Acts 20:34: Ethics of Manual Labor	87
5.1.	Initial Comments on 20:34	88
5.2.	Work in General: Scriptural Evidences	89
5.3.	Scriptural Foundation for the Labor Ethics of Paul	91
5.3.1.	Biblical Notion and Precepts	91
5.3.1.1.	Torah, Historical, and Prophetical Books	91
5.3.1.2.	Wisdom Books	93
5.3.1.2.1.	Book of Proverbs	94
5.3.1.2.2.	Book of Qohelet	94
5.3.1.2.3.	Book of Sirach	94
5.3.2.	The Example and Teachings of Jesus	94
5.3.3.	Greco-Roman Influence	95
5.3.4.	Jewish Practice and Family Upbringing	97

5.4.	“I Worked with My Own Hands”: The Work Ethics of Paul	98
5.4.1.	New Testament Attestation Regarding Paul’s Manual Work	98
5.4.1.1.	First Corinthians 4:12	98
5.4.1.2.	First Corinthians 9	99
5.4.1.3.	Second Corinthians 11:23, 27	100
5.4.1.4.	First Thessalonians 2:9	100
5.4.1.5.	Acts 18:3	101
5.4.2.	Pauline Teaching Regarding Manual Work	102
5.4.2.1.	Ephesians 4:28	102
5.4.2.2.	First Thessalonians 4:11–12	103
5.4.2.3.	Second Thessalonians 3:6–13	104
5.4.3.	“To Support Myself and My Companions”: Primary Goal of Paul’s Work	105
Chapter 6:	Acts 20:35 A: Paul as an Ethical Model	109
6.1.	“In All this I Have Given You an Example” (v. 35a): Preliminary Notes	110
6.2.	The Use of Examples and its Importance in the Greco-Roman World	110
6.2.1.	The Power of Examples in Ethical Exhortation	111
6.3.	Goal of the Use of Examples in the Scriptures	112
6.3.1.	In the LXX	112
6.3.2.	In the New Testament	113
6.4.	Paul and the Ethics of Imitation	114
6.4.1.	Ancients’ Concept of Imitation	114
6.4.2.	The Concept of Imitation According to Paul	115
6.4.2.1.	Paul as a τύπος	116
6.4.2.2.	μιμέομαι and μιμητής in Paul and Pauline Traditions	116
6.4.2.2.1.	“For You Became Imitators of the Churches of God”: 1 Thessalonians 2:14	118
6.4.2.2.2.	“Join in Imitating Me”: Philippians 3:17	120
6.4.2.2.3.	“I Urge You, then, Be Imitators of Me”: 1 Cor 4:16	121
6.4.2.2.4.	“Become as I Am”: Gal 4:12	122
6.4.2.2.5.	“Be Imitators of God”: Eph 5:1	122
6.4.3.	Christological Dimension of Imitation	123

7.3.2.1.1.2. In the “Central Section”	154
7.3.2.1.1.3. Jesus Ministry in Jerusalem	158
7.3.2.1.2. Motif of Giving in Acts	159
7.4. Ethics of Giving in the Pauline Writings	160
7.5. From Ethical Concern to Moral Obligation	164
Part 3: Theological Ethics, Ethical Concerns, and Prospects of Acts 20:32–35	167
Chapter 8: Interplay of Theology and Ethics in the Miletus Speech	169
8.1. The Purpose of the Miletus Speech	169
8.1.1. Transfer of Authority and Mission through Commissioning	169
8.1.2. To Highlight the Importance of Paul	172
8.1.3. To Provide a Pastoral Testament and Testimony	176
8.1.4. Apology for Paul	178
8.1.5. Deliberative Purpose	179
8.2. Normative Function of the Figure of Paul	182
8.3. Lucan Paul’s Imperative as a Moral Duty	184
8.4. Ethics of Poverty and Riches	185
Chapter 9: Ethical Vision and Implications of Acts 20:32–35	189
9.1. Let Grace be the Guiding Force	189
9.2. Leaders Must Have Pure Intentions	191
9.3. A Call to Generous Giving	192
9.4. A Call to Christian Responsibility	202
9.5. Imitation of Jesus and the Saints	204
9.6. Uphold the Dignity of all Labor and Laborers	205
9.6.1. Importance and Dignity of Manual Labor	206
9.6.2. Dignity of Laborers	207
General Conclusion	213
Bibliography	219