

Table of Contents

|                  |    |
|------------------|----|
| Acknowledgements | iv |
| Forwarding       | v  |

CHAPTER I MEANING OF THE TERM “TRIBAL”

|                                   |   |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| A. Original Meaning               | 1 |
| B. The Indian Usage               | 2 |
| C. Is “Tribal” a redeemable term? | 6 |

CHAPTER II TRIBAL SITUATION IN NORTH EAST INDIA

|   |    |
|---|----|
| A. Tribals : Alienated People                                 | 10 |
| B. Tribal Situation in North East India                       | 11 |
| 1. Tribal Policy in North East India                          | 14 |
| 2. Tribal Struggle as the Basis ofAssessing Tribal Policy | 27 |
| 3. Dialectic-Historical as the TribalApproach             | 30 |
| C. From Armed Struggle to Transformation Struggle             | 32 |
| 1. New Era of Development                                     | 32 |
| 2. Critical Analysis of Development Ideology                  | 33 |
| 3. Identity Crisis  | 41 |
| 4. Separatism   | 45 |
| D. Theological Agenda   | 49 |

CHAPTER III METHODOLOGICAL ISSUES IN TRIBAL THEOLOGY

|  |    |
|--|----|
| A. Theological Vision                  | 53 |
| B. Paradigm Shift in Theology          | 53 |
| C. Major Issues in Contextual Theology | 54 |
| D. Models of Contextual Model          | 62 |
| 1. Transplantational Model             | 62 |
| 2. Fulfilment Model                    | 63 |
| 3. Translational Model                 | 65 |

|   |    |
|---|----|
| 4. Dialogical Model                           | 68 |
| 5. Syntetic Model                             | 72 |
| 6. Praxis Model                               | 75 |
| E. Choice of Methodology for North East India | 81 |

CHAPTER IV TRIBAL HERMENEUTICS

|   |    |
|---|----|
| A. Tribals and the Bible                          | 86 |
| B. Need of Tribal Hermeneutics                    | 88 |
| C. Tribal Hermeneutical Principle                 | 91 |
| 1. Tribal Hermeneutical Paradigm                  | 92 |
| 2. Liberation of Aliens as Hermeneutical Paradigm | 93 |
| D. Aliens in the Bible                            | 94 |
| E. Hermeneutical Significance for Tribals         | 98 |
| F. Other Hermeneutical Clues                      | 99 |

CHAPTER V TRIBAL CONCEPT OF HUMANITY

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| A. Communitarianism                                   | 103 |
| B. Rediscovery of Communitarianism                    | 109 |
| C. Theological Validity of Communitarianism           | 111 |
| D. Theological Significance for Social Transformation | 112 |

CHAPTER VI TRIBAL SOCIAL ETHICS

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| A. Tlawmngaihna the basis of Tribal Social Ethics | 116 |
| B. Meaning of Tlawmngaihna                        | 116 |
| C. Critical Analysis of Tlawmngaihna              | 120 |
| D. Concept of Tlawmngaihna in Other Communities   | 121 |
| 1. Sobaliba among the Ao Nagas                    | 121 |
| 2. Niskama Karma among the Hindus                 | 121 |
| E. Reconstruction of Tlawmngaihna                 | 122 |
| F. Theological Validity of Tlawmngaihna           | 124 |
| G. Theological Significance for Social Transformation    | 125 |

CHAPTER VII
TRIBAL ECLESIOLOGY

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| A. Community Home as the Basis of Tribal Ecclesiology | 129 |
| B. Functions of Community Home                        | 132 |
| C. Rediscovery of Community Home                      | 134 |
| D. Theological Validity of Community Home             | 137 |
| E. Theological Significance for Social Transformation | 139 |

CHAPTER VIII
THE COMMUNITY OF GOD-HUMAN-WORLD

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| A. Theological Debate on God-Human-World Relationship                        | 143 |
| B. The Tribal Voice in the Debate  | 145 |
| C. Rediscovery of a Community Model of God-Human-World                       | 151 |
| D. Theological Validity of a Community Model of God-Human-World Relationship | 154 |
| E. Theological Significance for Social Transformation                        | 157 |

CHAPTER IX COMMUNITY LAND

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| A. Human attitude towards Land and Other Creatures    | 166 |
| B. The Tribal Concept of Land                         | 169 |
| C. Rediscovery of the Tribal Concept of Land          | 174 |
| D. Theological Validity of the Tribal Concept of Land | 179 |
| E. Theological Significance for Social Transformation | 180 |

CHAPTER X
COMMUNITY OF MEN AND WOMEN

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| A. Commonality and Diversity of Women Issue in NEI               | 183 |
| B. Relationship of Men and Women in the Tribal Community         | 185 |
| C. The Relationship of Men and Women among the Tribal Christians | 189 |
| D. The Relationship of Men and Women Today                       | 194 |
| E. Vision for a New Tribal Community                             | 200 |

CHAPTER XI SINGING THEOLOGY

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| A. Songs as the Source of Theology                      | 204 |
| B. Origin and Development of Indigenous Christian Songs | 204 |
| C. Tribals Sing their Theology                          | 208 |
| 1. Singing Theology of Hope                             | 209 |
| 2. Singing Theology of “Born Again”                     | 214 |
| 3. Singing Theology of Mission                          | 216 |
| 4. Singing Theology of Liberation                       | 219 |

CHAPTER XII THEOLOGY OF DEVELOPMENT

|              |     |
|--------------|-----|
| CONCLUSION   | 248 |
| BIBLIOGRAPHY | 252 |