

Contents

Acknowledgement	xi
Forward - I	xiii
Forward - II	xv
Chapter 1: Methodological Consideration	1
Chapter 2: Christianity in Mizoram	5
Introduction	5
2.1. Factors that Lead to the Introduction of Christianity in Mizoram	5
2.1.1. Series of Raids and Alexandrapur Incident	5
2.1.2. British Administration	9
2.1.3. The Prophetic Announcement	12
2.1.3.1. Prophecy of Selkhuma	12
2.1.3.2. Prophecy of Darphawka	14
2.2. The Coming of European Missionaries in Mizoram	16
2.2.1. Rev. William Williams	16
2.2.2. Arthington Aborigines Mission	18
2.2.3. Welsh Calvinistic Methodist Mission	20
2.2.4. Baptist Missionary Society	22
2.2.5. Lakher Pioneer Mission	24
2.3. Agents for the Spread of Christianity	26
2.3.1. Unpaid Preacher	27
2.3.2. Tirhkohte (Evangelists)	28
2.3.3. Kraws Sipai	29
2.3.4. Kristian Kantute	30
2.3.5. Fangrual	31
2.3.6. Mission School Teachers	32
2.3.7. Bible Women	34

2.4.	Reasons for the Success of Christianity in Mizoram	35
2.4.1.	Revival	35
2.4.1.1.	The First Wave of Revival	36
2.4.1.2.	The Second Wave of Revival	38
2.4.1.3.	The Third Wave of Revival	40
2.4.1.4.	The Fourth Wave of Revival	41
2.4.2.	Beihrual/Beirual	43
	Concluding Remarks	44
Chapter 3:	Development of Ecumenism Among the Mission Churches	47
	Introduction	47
3.1.	Cordial Relationship among the Mission Churches	47
3.1.1.	Church Organisation	48
3.1.2.	Acceptance of Ministry and Membership	49
3.1.3.	Exchange of Fraternal Delegates	51
3.2.	Cooperation among the Mission Churches	52
3.2.1.	In Bible Translation	53
3.2.2.	Production of Christian Hymn Book	55
3.2.3.	Publication of Christian Herald	56
3.3.	Coming of Other Denominations	57
3.3.1.	The Salvation Army	58
3.3.2.	Roman Catholic Church	58
3.3.3.	United Pentecostal Church (UPC)	59
3.3.4.	Seventh Day Adventist (SDA)	60
3.3.5.	Lairam Isua Krista Baptist Kohhran (Lairam Jesus Christ Baptist Church)	61
3.3.6.	Independent Church of India (ICI)	61
3.3.7.	Evangelical Free Church of India (EFCI)	62
3.3.8.	Isua Krista Kohhran (IKK)	62
3.3.9.	Wesleyan Methodist Church	63
3.4.	Interdenominational Cooperation	63
3.4.1.	Bible Society of India	63
3.4.2.	Mizoram Kohhran Hruaitu Committee (MKHC)	65
3.4.2.1.	First Meeting	66
3.4.2.2.	Second Meeting	66
3.4.2.3.	Third Meeting	67
3.4.3.	Mizo Theological Association (MTA)	68
3.4.3.1.	Objectives	68
3.4.3.2.	Circumstantial Motivation	68

3.4.3.3. Formation of Mizo Theological Association	69
3.4.3.4. Leaders of MTA (2021-2023)	69
3.4.4. Mizo Theological Literature Committee (MTLC)	70
3.4.4.1. Aims of MTLC	71
3.4.4.2. Membership	71
3.4.4.3. The MTLC Publications	72
3.4.4.4. Office Bearers and Committee Members	73
3.4.5. Mizoram People Forum (MPF)	74
3.4.5.1. Brief History of the Mizoram People Forum	74
3.4.5.2. Goals and Objectives of the Mizoram People Forum	78
3.4.5.3. Structure of the MPF	78
3.4.5.4. Working Guideline	79
Concluding Remarks	79
Chapter 4: Presentation, Analysis and Interpretation of Data	81
Introduction	81
4.1. Demographic Data	82
4.2. Presence of Different Denominations	87
4.3. Impacts of Disunity	91
4.4. Unity of the Church	94
4.5. Awareness of Unity	99
4.6. Unity and Leadership	101
Concluding Remarks	104
Chapter 5: Movement Towards Ecumenism	105
Introduction	105
5.1. World Missionary Conference, 1910	106
5.1.1. Significance of World Missionary Conference for Unity	107
5.2. International Missionary Council (IMC)	108
5.3. Life and Work and Faith and Order	109
5.4. World Council of Churches	111
5.4.1. Nature of the World Council of Churches	111
5.5. Models of Unity	112
5.5.1. Charismatic Model of Unity	113
5.5.2. Federal Unity	113
5.5.3. Organic Unity	114
5.5.4. Conciliar Unity	115
5.6. Church Union Movement in India	116
5.6.1. The Church of South India	116

5.6.2. The Church of North India	117
5.6.3. Church Union Movement in North East India	118
5.7. Movement towards Church Union in Mizoram	120
5.7.1. Church Leaders First Joint Meeting	121
5.7.2. Church Leaders Second Joint Meeting	122
5.7.3. Church Leaders Third Joint Meeting	123
5.7.4. Church Leaders Fourth Joint Meeting	123
5.7.5. Church Leaders Fifth Joint Meeting	124
5.7.6. Church Leaders Sixth Joint Meeting	125
5.7.7. Church Leaders Seventh Joint Meeting	126
5.7.8. Church Leaders Eight Joint Meeting	127
5.7.9. Church Leaders Ninth Joint Meeting	128
5.7.10. Church Leaders Tenth Joint Meeting	128
5.8. Failure of Church Union Negotiation	130
5.8.1. Missionary Relationship	130
5.8.2. Exclusive Denominationalism	131
5.8.3. The Model of Unity	131
5.8.4. Lack of Grassroots Level Participation	131
5.9. Council of Churches in Mizoram or Mizo Christian Council	132
Concluding Remark	134
Chapter 6: Problems and Prospects of Ecumenism Among the Churches in Mizoram	135
Introduction	135
6.1. Problems of Ecumenism	135
6.1.1. Political Factor	136
6.1.2. Geographical Factor	136
6.1.3. Mission Factor	137
6.1.4. Doctrinal Factor	138
6.1.4.1. Sacraments	139
6.1.4.2. Church Organization	140
6.1.5. Identity Factor	141
6.1.6. Inter-Denominational Rivalry	141
6.1.6.1. Growing Denominationalism	142
6.1.6.2. Existence of Splinter Groups	143
6.2. Impacts of Disunity	144
6.2.1. Sociological Effect	144
6.2.2. Impact on Mizo Social Life	145

6.2.3. Impact on Mizo Political Life	146
6.2.4. Religious Effect	147
6.2.4.1. Religious Violence	147
6.2.4.2. Religious Fanaticism	147
6.2.5. Impact on the Church	147
6.3. Prospects for Ecumenism in Mizoram	150
6.3.1. Ecumenism for Social Action	151
6.3.2. Ecumenism for Good Governance	152
6.3.3. Ecumenism for Mission Work	154
6.4. Suggestions for Ecumenism	156
6.4.1. Mutual Understanding of Churches	157
6.4.2. Mutual Recognition of Church Polity Church	157
6.4.3. Mutual Recognition of Baptism	159
6.4.4. Mutual Recognition of the Eucharist	161
6.4.5. Mutual Acceptance of Ministry	161
Concluding Remarks	162
Chapter 7: General Conclusion	165
Bibliography	171